

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

II. Reports of Adjutants and Quartermasters, with the per capita tax for the second six months of 1921 are due immediately after the last meeting of the Post held in December. The State Commission and the Government Officials have in preparation a suitable program for the great event. Governor William C. Sproul will preside; Ground broken by George Gordon Meade, grandson of General Meade; Addresses by Hon. John Weeks, Secretary of War; Lieut. General Nelson B. Miles, United States Army; Music by the Army or Marine Band and Buglers. President Harding has promised to attend the ceremony in company with the Justice of the United States Supreme Court, U. S. Senators and Congressmen from Pennsylvania, Members of the State Legislature, prominent Army and Navy officers, members of the Loyal Legion and the Grand Army of the Republic.

It is expected that this magnificent memorial to General Meade will be completed and dedicated before the close of 1922 at a cost of $200,000, a gift of Pennsylvania to the City of Washington.

The Meade Memorial, designed and created by a Philadelphia Sculptor Grafly, who ranks among the greatest of America's artists, is a radical departure from the Equestrian Statue, so common to the City of Washington.

In this Memorial Mr. Graffy has conceived and executed a work of marvelous beauty and a faithful portrayal of General Meade and his great Military service. The great Commander of the Army of the Potomac is shown standing forth in the centre of six figures; Military Courage, Energy, Fame, Loyalty, Chivalry and Progress. General Meade stands, his work accomplished, ready to stand forth from the cloak of battle.

MEMORIAL DAY

I. Once more the returning spring with its opening flowers resurrects the memory of our fallen comrades and reminds us of the approach of sacred Memorial Day, Tuesday, May 30.

Let us reverently and tenderly garland with Nature's purest and most fragrant gift each mound where sleeps our comrade and affectionately think of the unknown and unmarked graves of our patriot companions, remembering that in the solemn duty we have the sympathy and prayers of the widow and orphan and the blessings of a grateful Republic.

Each year the number of comrades who have gone to join the silent majority is growing larger and the number left to do honor to the memory of those who have passed away is becoming smaller and in few years at the most these Memorial Services will be performed by others who were not participants in the war for the suppression of treason and the preservation of the Union, let us therefore invite the auxiliary organizations of the Grand Army of the Republic as well as all patriotic societies and citizens to participate with us in the exercise of the day.

II. The Forty-fifth National Encampment, held at Rochester, August, 1911, ordered that as a part of the public exercises of Memorial Day, bells be tolled from 12 o'clock noon to 12.05; that flags be placed at half-mast, and that comrades remain standing with uncovered head during this period.

As part of the ceremonies of Memorial Day, there will be read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and General Order No. 11, dated May 5, 1868, published by Commander-in-Chief John A. Logan instituting Memorial Day.

III. During the week previous to MEMORIAL DAY, you will arrange for visits to all the schools, and take part, as far as possible, in such patriotic exercises and program as may be arranged by our school authorities who have always been ready to make their part a most successful one.

May 27th, the Sunday preceding MEMORIAL DAY, will be observed by the Posts, in company with their auxiliaries and invited guests, attending divine service.

By command of CHARLES C. TAYLOR, Department Commander.

IN MEMORIAM

It becomes the sad duty of the Department Commander to announce the death of Past Department Commander James W. Latta.

Comrade James W. Latta was born in Philadelphia, April 19, 1839, and died at his home in Philadelphia, Sunday, March 26, 1922.

Comrade Latta first enlisted as private in Company D, Gray Reserves, April 19, 1861. He was subsequently mustered as first Lieutenant Co. E, 119 Pennsylvania Volunteers, September 1, 1862; promoted to captain Co. B., same regiment, March 4, 1864; promoted to captain and Assistant Adjutant General in U. S. Volunteers May 21, 1864 and was mustered out as brevet Lieutenant Colonel January 20, 1866.

Comrade Latta was mustered into Post 2, Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic, December 29, 1870, taking an active interest in its affairs until his last illness. He was elected Department Commander in 1876.

Comrade Latta was prominent in both civic and military affairs; he was Colonel of the First Regiment N. G. P., from 1868 to 1873, when he was appointed Adjutant General of the State, serving in that office for about ten years. In 1889 he was elected Clerk of the Courts of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia, and was re-elected for a second term. He was also the first secretary of the Civil Service Board of his city. In 1894 he was elected secretary of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth and was re-elected four years later.

Comrade Latta was a finished orator. His addresses were scholarly and entertaining. He was much sought after to speak at Camp-fires and other patriotic gatherings, as well as at many civic functions.

His loss will be deeply felt by his many friends throughout the Department.

56TH ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT
ALTOONA, PA.

CAMP FIRE AT JAFFEE TEMPLE, 8 P. M., June 6, 1922

---

The Camp Fire was called to order by Past Department Commander J. D. Hicks, of Post No. 468, Altoona, the Chairman.

Reveille was sounded by Comrade George W. Friedly, of Huntingdon, followed by the Bugle Call.

The children of the Altoona High School, led by Professor Compton, sang "The Star Spangled Banner," and Department Chaplain, Rev. S. F. Forgeus, offered the prayer.

THE CHAIRMAN: Comrades of the old Army and friends: It is with pleasure we refer to the fact that this is the third time since the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic that the City of Altoona has been honored by the presence of our Department Encampment; and on each of these visitations the honor of extending to our Comrades a greeting has been accorded to me, and it is a source of unbounded pleasure that I speak on behalf of our entire citizenship when I say: No body of men, or association, will ever be greeted with more fervor and affection than is extended to the survivors of the Civil War, who saved for our nation our glorious emblem of equal rights and national unity, and established, we trust, for all time to come, as a fact, that we are "One Country Under One Flag," and that "Old Glory," that we love so well, shall ever remain as the banner of a united people, devoted to the principles of government of the people and by the people, and shall ever be the exemplary nation of the world in which we live.

When the organizers of rebellion and disunion were plotting treason in February, 1861, our then great leader and newly elected President, Abraham •Lincoln, upon his leave-taking and farewell to his friends and neighbors in Springfield, Illinois, under the falling snow, from his car, said:

"No one not in my position can appreciate my feelings of sadness at this time * * * I now leave, not knowing whether I may ever return; with a task before me greater than that which rested upon Washington. Without the assistance of that Divine Being, which ever attended him, I cannot succeed. With that assistance, I cannot fail. Trusting in Him who can go with me and remain with you, and be everywhere for good, let us confidently hope that all will yet be well. To His care commanding you, I hope in your prayers you will commend me, I bid you an affectionate farewell."

With this great thought and responsibility upon his mind, of saving this union for posterity, he left his home to enter upon the great task that he had been called upon to assume. In closing his first inaugural address, on the steps of the Capitol at Washington, with uncovered head, he said to the great multitude that was present on that occasion, in ringing words:

"In your hands, my dissatisfied fellow-countrymen, and not in mine, is the momentous issue of Civil War. The Government will not assail you. You can have no conflict without yourselves being the aggressor. You have no oath registered in Heaven to destroy the Government, while I shall have the most solemn oath to preserve, protect and defend it * * * We are not enemies, but friends. We must not be enemies; though passion may have strained, it must not break our bonds of affection."

"The mystic chords of memory that stretch from every battlefield and patriot's grave to every loving heart and hearthstone, all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the Union, when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of our nature."

How true, my comrades and friends, these words, far distant as they then seemed to be, have come true. From Maine to Texas, Alaska and California, to Florida, we now have the music of the Union * * * and the Union forever is the wish and hope of every good citizen of this great country.

Comrades, you know what it cost, a half million of the brave young men of this nation, who touched elbows with you, gave their noble lives to prove the truth of Mr. Lincoln's prophecy. He himself was among those who made the supreme sacrifice and was a martyr to our cause to preserve the Union.

I am proud to say that Altoona did its full duty in that great struggle, and to our credit we say that our young men were all VOLUNTEERS; and, in the great World War, our Company "G", under Colonel Kemp, Major King and Captain Dunkle, of the 110th, were of that 28th Division that gave such a noble account of themselves upon the battlefields of France, and many of our dear comrades of the World War also made the supreme sacrifice that this nation may always be the beacon light of the world.

Dear Friends, on behalf of our loyal people, I find my heart swells with pride, as on their behalf, great men, true men, loyal men, Soldiers of Lincoln, we rejoice in your presence here and we open our hearts and our homes, and extend to you and bid you hearty welcome, and trust you may have a pleasant stay in our "Mountain City".

And to the Ladies of the G. A. R., the Woman's Relief Corps, the Daughter of Veterans, and the Auxiliary to the Sons of Veterans, we likewise extend to you a most cordial and hearty welcome to Altoona, and as you, as our auxiliary organizations, along with the comrades of the World War, to make this the Fifty-sixth Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic an occasion long to be remembered.

We will now proceed with the program for the evening.

"Tenting on the Old Camp Ground", was sung by the Central Grammar Choir, Miss Laura Rickabaugh, Director, and received hearty applause.

Comrade H. V. Carles, of Post 468, recited "Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg", in his usual splendid manner.

THE CHAIRMAN: Comrades, I now have the honor and very great pleasure of introducing to you our Department Commander, Charles C. Taylor, of Philadelphia.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER CHARLES C. TAYLOR: Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, and allied organizations, and friends, the chairman of this meeting said this was a campfire, and I know that recalls to my comrades the memory of many happy hours. I know we have a long program tonight, and it is very warm, and so I am going to make my remarks as brief as possible.

I want to say to my comrades, that when you heard that song tonight "Tenting on the old Camp Ground", did it not call back to you the days of 1862, in December, when we were "Tenting on the old Camp Ground". Ah, how many of our comrades were left on the "old camp ground", never to return with us. Comrades, when I hear these old songs, it fills my soul with joy to realize that I had the great privilege of, I might say, "doing my little bit" during that struggle in the days of '61 to '65. You will remember our comrades of those days didn't have the array of beautiful ladies we see around us here tonight; no, we sat alongside of the fire, a big log fire, and especially during the winter we would have it so warm that we would be roasted in front while our backs were freezing, and so we were forced to keep turning around, and we sang and told stories, and talked of home, and then would come "Taps", and along came the guard, and as the camp fire broke up, you would hear one fellow start singing "Who will care for Mother now", and voice after voice would take up the refrain. But the boys would sit around the fire in those days, and one would say, "I wonder what they are doing at home now!" and another: "I wonder if they have the plowing all done", and somebody would start to sing an old song, and a little distance on we would hear another troop singing, "Marching Through Georgia", and all about these fires the men sat singing those old songs they loved so well.

Why, Comrades, when you think of it all, don't you wish you could recall it, don't you wish you could go back to it again? Why, they were campfires that we were proud of, and we are surely proud of our campfire tonight for it shows that the people of America take an interest in the old boys in blue, and that the sacrifices you have made are not forgotten. The story of your heroic deeds will be handed down from generation to generation, from father to son, American all! Of course, we all know there are many in this country who have no sentiment, but I tell you, my comrades that the man, woman or child who possesses no sentiment, has no soul! But there shall always be those who will remember and teach the lessons of your patriotism, they are teaching it to our children today, and they in turn will teach their children, and so it will go on and on until the end of time. I thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: It is customary, and indeed it is a rule and regulation of the Grand Army of the Republic that the Department Commander, as well as the Commander in Chief, should appoint a Chief of Staff. Now, we are all not very well acquainted with the comrade whom Commander Taylor appointed as his Chief of Staff, and so in order that you may become better acquainted with him, I am going to introduce him to you *** Comrade John B. Fletcher, of Post No. 8, Philadelphia, Chief of Staff.

CHIEF OF STAFF, JOHN B. FLETCHER: Mr. Chairman, Comrades, and allied organizations, ladies and friends: I am indeed entrusted with a pleasant duty tonight, and I have been requested to perform that duty by the comrades of the Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic. Needless to say, I very cheerfully accepted the commission, and am exceedingly glad to perform that duty tonight before you.

As we travel along through the years, it becomes more and more our desire to do pleasing things for one another, deeds of charity and kindness, expressing our goodwill towards our fellowmen, and taking great joy in making others happy. The Department of Pennsylvania had for fifty-six years held their annual encampments, and at each encampment they elected some deserving comrade their Department Commander for a year, and for his splendid accomplishments that comrade will be rewarded and honored with some token of affection from his comrades. At Allentown, just a year ago, we unanimously elected a most worthy and deserving comrade for our Department Commander, Charles C. Taylor, of Post No. 46, Philadelphia, and all through the year much splendid work has been accomplished and well performed. His administration will be recorded in the history of the Department of Pennsylvania as one of the most successful, equal to or as good as any other we have had in this Department. He has kept up the high standard of our noble organization; he has maintained the dignity required of a Department Commander, with justice and fairness to one and all, and his administration has been a successful one, with credit to himself and honor to the Grand Army of the Republic.

Now, Department Commander Taylor, I first wish to express to you my heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation for the honor you conferred upon me at Allentown a year ago in appointing me your Chief of Staff, and also I wish to express to the officers of your official family, to the aides-de-camp, to the Past Department Commanders, and all the comrades with whom we have assembled, my sincere appreciation of their unvarying kindness and courtesy on all occasions.

Commander Taylor, your successful administration is at a close, and you will soon be relieved from the arduous duties and the great responsibility that were placed upon your shoulders a year ago. The Grand Army of the Republic has always and ever will acknowledge good work faithfully and honorably performed. Your comrades know, Commander Taylor, what a great worker in the Grand Army of the Republic you have always been, and since the time you became a member, over forty years ago, you have always been a worker for the best interest and welfare of our noble organization; indeed I might say, a comrade had but to call upon you to receive your hearty support in every way, and every duty assigned to you through all the years has been zealously and nobly done.

Now, Commander Taylor, I am entrusted tonight with a duty the performance of which will be one of the greatest pleasures of my life. In the name of my comrades, and on their behalf, I present to you this beautiful badge of a Department Commander, purchased for you by them as a token of their esteem, love and respect.

(Applause.)

Look upon that badge! How beautiful it is, magnificent in finish and design in every detail. Here the White Star, signifying the corps in which you served, that splendid Twelfth Army Corps, which did such magnificent service from '61 to '65. Commander Taylor, when you have occasion to look upon this beautiful token of respect and love and admiration from your old comrades, you will surely have the most happy recollection of those who have so honored you here tonight, and not only that, when you look upon it it will bring to your heart feeling of gratification in the knowledge that you possess the love of your comrades, your official staff, your predecessor in office, your aides and all the members of this splendid organization, and you may know that beautiful token is an acknowledgement of their appreciation of the fact that you have made your administration one of the best we have ever had.

We hope, Commander Taylor, with all our hearts that you may live long and have many happy years in which to enjoy this, and also that we may have your continued good comradeship, as you know you have ours. May your home be blessed with cheerfulness, joy and happiness, and may all our homes receive the same blessing, and find joy in the service of our Blessed Lord and Savior, who has given to us all the victories and who is the Captain of our salvation. Comrade Taylor, I congratulate you!

(Applause.)

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER TAYLOR: Comrade Fletcher, and the comrades of my staff, and Past Commanders and all other comrades who have contributed towards this token, I want to assure you, Comrades, that when I assumed the office of Department Commander I had made up my mind fully that I was going to give to you the very best that was in me, and I have done so, though I really have done no more than my duty, that belongs and is owing to you comrades, one and all.

As regards this beautiful badge, I assure you, my comrades, that whenever I look upon it, it will bring to my mind not only this encampment, but many other encampments, and it will bring before me the faces of my comrades so that I can talk to you in spirit. And when I pass away, I want you to know that I will have this handed down to my boy, my own son, and it will be as safe in his hands as it is in my own, to love and to honor and to safeguard.

I thank you, comrades. My heart is full. I can say no more. (Applause.)

THE CHAIRMAN: Now, comrades, you all remember the "girl you left behind you." I am going to have that played now, and I know it will bring back many happy recollections.

"The Girl I Left Behind Me", to music of fife and drum, played by Comrade George W. Friedly, of Huntingdon, and Charles F. Cook, a Son of a Veteran, was splendidly played, and evoked prolonged applause.

THE CHAIRMAN: Comrades, I am told our Junior Vice Commander-in-Chief is present with us. I know you will all be very glad to have a word from him. It gives me pleasure to welcome him to Altoona and to our Encampment.

I now have the honor of introducing to you Junior Vice Commander in Chief Henry A. Johnson.

JUNIOR VICE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF HENRY A. JOHNSON: Department Commander and comrades of the Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic, ladies of all the patriotic organizations allied or associated with the Department of Pennsylvania Grand Army of the Republic, Citizens of Altoona and Pennsylvania: I am delighted to represent here tonight the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, at the 56th Annual Encampment of the Department of Pennsylvania, as he could not be present, much to his regret. I appreciate this honor because it was from the State of Pennsylvania that I entered the service of the United States in the war for the suppression of the rebellion when a youth of fifteen years of age, on the 5th day of May, 1861, as a member of the 26th Pennsylvania Infantry, and among the first three regiments from the state, and I remained therein for a little over three years. My only regret was that I was not permitted to reinlist, by reason of a serious wound which I received in one of the battles, and our medical authorities were of the opinion that I could not stand another strenuous campaign. I had, of course, to yield to this decision, but I was of a totally different opinion. In a few months after my discharge I again entered the service and remained until the close of the war.

it is almost that many years since I heard that statement made by a Philadelphia lawyer, and I at once believed that all the Philadelphia people, and the Pennsylvania people, were the most wonderful people in the world. (I see that the Philadelphians agree with me.)

Members of the Grand Army of the Republic, this is your night, and I know how proud you are to witness this great gathering. What have you come here for, what brought you out on this warm evening—Why, to pay tribute to these men of the Grand Army of the Republic. I thought, as I sat in the hotel, and heard the fife and drum, oh, what a lonesome feeling it is going to be when we attend conventions and no more the old drum and the fife are going to greet us! I don't want to think about that, and I am glad you still have the men who are able to entertain you and put the true campfire feeling into the whole scheme, but when you pass on, we are going to think very tenderly of you of the days when you were with us. Even you boys and girls that tonight are simply thinking of these men as old men, and these women as old women, later in life there is one thing you are going to be very proud of, you don't realize it now, but you are going to be proud that on one occasion you were privileged to sit on the same platform and help entertain these men. You will realize then, as you cannot possibly tonight, because I too was a girl once and I laughed as you may laugh, but the time will come when you will remember, with a stirring throb in your heart, that you were present here tonight when these men, the men who defended the union, these men who gave us our wonderful country, and kept our flag stainless! (Applause.)

I was privileged within the past few days to visit Andersonville. I need not tell you, men of the Grand Army of the Republic, what Andersonville means, but I wish that every one of you, man and woman and girl and boy, could have stood there with us, and looked upon that row and row and row of small white stones that mark the resting place of those boys, not grown men, but boys of fifteen, sixteen, seventeen and eighteen years of age, who gave up their lives in defence of their nation. I stood there before those thousands of little headstones, and I said, "You little boys! You little fellows! You dared to do what thousands of men today wouldn't dare to do, you stood firm in the faith!" And I there paid my own silent tribute to those boys and the thousands of others who died that I might enjoy a future in this wonderful country of ours.

There was a very pleasant thing happened to me on that trip while going home. A very bright-faced girl sat in the train. I looked at her, and she smiled, and I smiled, and we suddenly became acquainted. We talked of the last war, and she, hearing that I came from Massachusetts, said to me: "There were some awfully nice boys from Massachusetts who came to camps in the South, and I said, "There were some very nice fellows from the South who came to camps in Massachusetts. And she said, "I think it was a splendid thing for the Government to plan it so; because we have learned to understand one another better." I know if there had been members of the Grand Army of the Republic present they would have been proud of that little girl; they would have been glad that that feeling is growing up among the youth of this generation.

I bring to you, as the National President of the Woman's Relief Corps, the most hearty and sincere greetings of an organization made up of about 200,000 women, the wives, the blood relatives, the daughters of the Grand Army of the Republic, and all loyal women, just loyal. I cannot give you the percentage of the wives, of the daughters, and other blood relatives, nor can I say to you how many loyal women other than relatives are in our organization, but I can promise you this, members of the Grand Army of the Republic, that every woman, whether or not she is married to you, whether or not she is a blood kin of yours or your comrades, whether or not she is simply a loyal woman, every one of them stand face forward to the vision, the vision of the necessity of the age. They are going on when you men give up the work you have so nobly performed, and it is the duty of every patriotic woman to carry on, as you carried on, and I pledge to you, comrades, that the members of the Woman's Relief Corps stand shoulder to shoulder, 200,000 strong, and with your help it can be made 500,000 strong to perpetuate the memory of your heroic deeds, and to keep ever before the gaze of a forgetful republic the days of your services and your heroic deeds.

I trust that the Father who watches over us all will bring each of you all happiness in life, and we send up to Him a grateful prayer of thankfulness that we were permitted to be present while there is still with us this remnant of the mighty army that defended the Union from '61 to '65. (Applause.)

THE CHAIRMAN: It is with great pleasure that I now present to you Mrs. Jennie Walls, the Department President of the Ladies of the G. A. R.

DEPARTMENT PRESIDENT, MRS. JENNIE WALLS: Mr. Chairman, comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, Ladies of the G. A. R., and all allied patriotic organizations, and friends: It is a very great pleasure to be here this evening, and to represent the Ladies of the G. A. R., the most patriotic order of women in the world today, and who are the blood kin of the veterans of the Civil War from '61 to '65, and the closest tie that binds.

Comrades, I bring greetings to you, who have served in that great war, from the Ladies of the G. A. R., who, by their loyalty, with you who by your loyalty, have preserved our country and our beautiful emblem of peace, the American flag.

To the various friends assembled here this evening, I would say, do not forget your patriotism as the United States needs your loyalty now, I might say, more than ever in the history of our country, and so I ask every patriotic organization to clasp hands in fraternity, and to work in unison to further Americanism and patriotism. The spirit we derived from our grandfathers, fathers, and the veterans of '61 to '65, gave us the heritage of freedom and the one emblem of America, the nation's flag,

PROCEEDINGS OF THE

56TH ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT
DEPARTMENT OF PENNSYLVANIA
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC

Held at

Altoona, Pa., June 7th and 8th, 1922.

---

Jaffa Temple,
Wednesday, June 7, 1922, 10 A. M.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER TAYLOR: Comrades and friends, this is a preliminary meeting to the opening of the 56th Annual Encampment of the Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic, and I wish to introduce to you the Mayor of Altoona, the Hon. Charles E. Rhodes, who will deliver the address of welcome to the Grand Army of the Republic and its Auxiliaries.

MAYOR CHARLES E. RHODES: Department Commander, Members of the Grand Army of the Republic, its affiliated organizations, and friends:

It is my high privilege and pleasure to welcome to Altoona today the shattered remnant of the glorious army that finally wiped the institution of chattel slavery from the face of the earth and established forevermore among men the principle of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Up until the day of Appomattox we worshipped the theory and denied the fact. The perversity of human nature is such, that while demanding liberty for ourselves, we find it hard to grant it to our fellows, and it seems that every step of progress toward higher things demands a blood sacrifice. It is written in the book of the fates that some must die and others may live. The whole universe bowed to the inevitable when the cross was erected on Calvary.

The War in which you men took a part marks an epoch in the history of mankind that will never fade from the memory of men so long as the world endures. It was a victory of the plain people over the high and mighty of the world who maintained their seats by the exploitation of their fellows. Pride and arrogance were brought to see their errors, and these devils cast out at the point of the bayonet, men were again clothed in their right minds. The wounds have healed and a united country marches on to its ultimate destiny in the vanguard of the nations. An innumerable multitude follows in the footsteps of Lincoln, the Rail-splitter, and Grant, the tanner, even as they bow in reverence to Jesus, the Carpenter, each being glad to render service to his fellows instead of demanding it from them.

I am confronted today by an audience of world-weary men, on whom the hand of time has left its imprint. More than three score years have fled into the past since you blithely marched away to preserve the liberties of your land, and I will not further weary you with empty words of praise. What you did then is vastly more important than anything I may say now, and any attempt on my part to add to the crowns on your brow would be but painting the lily. Your places in the hall of fame are secure, and posterity will ever hold you in grateful remembrance.

With a whole heart, I bid you welcome to Altoona. With many of you the welcome will involve a "Hail and Farewell"! (Applause.)

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: I will call on Past Department Commander J. Andrew Wilt to respond to the address of the Mayor.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER J. ANDREW WILT: Mr. Mayor, Commander and comrades: it affords me much pleasure to represent you boys in saying "Thank you" to these words of praise and welcome. It reminds me of the fact that sixteen years ago I stood here as your Department Commander and responded to the hearty welcome of the Mayor of Altoona. Sixteen years have passed since then over our heads, with their natural effect. Yes, the years have gone, Comrades, but your spirit and mine are just the same.

Now, what can we say to these people who welcome us here, year by year? I remember telling this story sixteen years ago to the people of Altoona: During the War of the Rebellion a young fellow was wounded and was sent to the hospital. The Ladies came in and they wanted to put water on his wound, and they rubbed his head, and he permitted them to do it, it was kind of them, it was pleasant, it was soothing. Finally another lady came along and said, "Boy, don't you want me to rub your head?" He said, "Yes, thank you, but you are only the twelfth lady who has done it." Now, we are accustomed to these words of praise and welcome, and we appreciate them just the same. Wherever we go, we receive the same praise and welcome, and it is gratifying to us.

On behalf of the comrades of this great department, who are the remnant of the men who fought with Meade, and Grant, and Sherman, and Sheridan, at Lookout Mountain, Gettysburg, everywhere over this broad land, establishing the fact that we are a free country in deed and in fact, the remnant of that army of men who accomplished that are here today, and on their behalf, I say to you: "Thank you, most sincerely, Mr. Mayor, for your welcome to us here this morning!"

JENNIE S. DINSMORE, Department President.

LAURA W. WILLOW, Department Secretary.

DEPARTMENT. COMMANDER: I now have the pleasure of introducing Mrs. Isabel Ball, also representing the Woman's Relief Corps.

MRS. ISABEL W. BALL: Comrades of Pennsylvania, you are my comrades because you were my Daddy's comrades, this has always been to me a perfectly wonderful department, I think more so than any other department in the United States.

Now, Comrades, in your last days you have many wonderful things to remember about your splendid organization, the Grand Army of the Republic. Five Presidents of the United States have come from your ranks! Every State in this Union, except seven Southern States, have had Grand Army men as their governors over and over again. You have filled all the State offices, you have filled your county offices, you have filled your municipal offices. You have made this country, it has grown up under your tutelage, and because of you we have the most wonderful country in the world today. You scattered all over this broad country, far beyond the Mississippi, off into the wilderness, and you have turned that wilderness into a beautiful, productive land, as it is today. Not only that, but you built the cities and the towns, and you have reared your sons who are following in your footsteps. It is a wonderful record that the Grand Army of the Republic has made, and yet I wonder how much the world really knows about it. You men in your post rooms have got the history of it and of the things those men actually accomplished individually, and I am going to suggest here today, in order that these records may go down into history, that when the last member of a post has passed away, the records be turned over to the Historical Society, so there may be forever recorded the things that you men did.

War is a horrible thing, and we want no more of them, but God will have to make us over before wars end. So help at your end of the line while you live and show the world that the soldiers of the War of the Rebellion were the greatest moral uplift that the world has ever known. I believe that two-thirds of the Confederate veterans today believe you were right and they were wrong. But the darn women, you can't do anything with them. (Laughter and applause.)

And boys, as long as you live, don't let your spirit flag, don't let your energy die out, but keep to the front until the last minute, for the flag for which you so nobly fought. (Applause.)

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: I now have the honor, and the very great pleasure of presenting to you, Comrades, W. B. McNulty, Secretary of the Sons of Veterans.

W. B. McNULTY, SECRETARY OF THE SONS OF VETERANS: Comrades of my father and grandfather, it is my distinguished pleasure and honor to convey to you this morning the greetings of the Pennsylvania Department, Sons of Veterans of the United States of America, to renew their pledge of fealty, loyalty and affection for the membership of your wonderful organization.

The Sons of Veterans, as you know, were created for the purpose of keeping green the memories of your comrades, to preserve the ideals for which you fought and for which 400,000 of your comrades gave up their lives upon the field of battle on land and sea; to keep preserved down through the coming generations, that most sacred of all days in the calendar of the holidays of the nations of the earth, Memorial Day. To go to the children and the youth of the nation and tell the story not only of American history but that which is applicable to that portion of it that shines with resplendant glory—from '61 to '65! Into our hands will be committed the great work that organization had done from the time of its inception.

Your hearts, I know, are softened, and the chords of sympathy are touched this morning by the splendid tributes of reference and affection tendered you by the representatives of these great allied organizations. Each one of them represented here today, including the one that I am representing, have but thought in view, one object, and that is to preserve the memory of your comrade your deeds, what you did to preserve this great nation. We are to tell the story and keep it alive, and tell of the great heroism and devotion to the flag displayed by you and your comrades in the great conflicts that took place in those days, over half a century ago, so that it was you who made it possible to crush out imperialism and to save humanity when war again fell upon the world. This is the story and the greetings I bring to you this morning from the Sons of Veterans. If you cannot entrust into the care of your own blood kin, your sons and your grandsons, the future of this wonderful country, if you cannot entrust to them its honor and the perpetuation of your noble work, to whom can you entrust it? For we shall ever tell the story of how men suffered and died to make men free, to preserve this nation, to give us this beautiful flag without a stain, and that story will be told to all future generations so long as this great nation exists. (Applause.)

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: On behalf of my comrades, I thank you all for your kind words and your greetings, and I wish for you all success in your work and much prosperity.

ADDRESS OF DEPARTMENT COMMANDER.*COMRADES:—

I desire to express my thanks for the great honor that has been mine during the year just closing of occupying the office of Department Commander. It has been a year to be remembered with great pleasure. I assure you. I have endeavored to attend to the duties faithfully and trust the department can be delivered to my successor at the close of this encampment without blemish due to any act of mine. I have given you three hundred and sixty-five days of my time.

MEMBERSHIP.

At the beginning of my term of my office there were on our rolls in good standing four hundred and seventeen Posts with eight thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine members. The membership on January 1, 1922 was four hundred and nine Posts with eight thousand one hundred and seventy-eight members. I refer you to the report of the Assistant Adjutant General for details. Our membership is gradually diminishing, and must in the future continue to fall off. The financial condition of the department is good, as will be seen by reference to the report of the Assistant Quartermaster General.

MEMORIAL SUNDAY.

The observance of Memorial Sunday in this department, as heretofore, was general, and reports indicate that our Posts performed their full duty on that day by attending Divine Service in their several localities.

MEMORIAL DAY.

The observance of Memorial Day is by the rules and regulations made a duty of the Posts. Department headquarters, as such, has no official place in the ceremonies of the day. It is presumed that officers of the department join with their Posts on that occasion.

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.

The department was represented at the National Encampment held at Indianapolis. Our department made a good showing and your commander was proud to march at its head, in command. The universal verdict was that Indianapolis had "made good" in entertaining the Grand Army of the Republic.

OUR AUXILIARIES.

No doubt there are many instances known to you where material assistance has been given the comrades by these patriotic bodies. To the Women's Relief Corps, the Sons of Veterans, the Ladies of the G. A. R., and the Daughters of the Veterans, we extend our acknowledgement and assurance of appreciation.

The home in care of the Womens Relief Corps at Brookville is in charge of a competent board of managers. I was unable to visit this home.

The home in care of the Ladies of the G. A. R. at Hawkins Station, I visited and found the members of the home having in their declining years the comforts of life.

The home at Sixty-fifth and Vine Streets, Philadelphia, in care of the local circles of the Ladies of the G. A. R. I have visited and found the members happy, well cared for and contented.

Comrades should assist the ladies in maintaining these homes by all the means in their power.

The Daughters of Veterans is a live wire auxiliary and are assisting the comrades in a substantial way.

The Sons of Veterans should be encouraged in every way by the comrades. In a visit to Camp Curtain No. 100 at Phoenixville; this camp has dedicated a building at a cost of twenty-five thousand dollars as a memorial to the G. A. R.

I visited the Scotland School and found the boys and girls, well up in their studies. The School and the farm under the direction of Mr. Signor, are progressing and I found him to be the right man in the right place.

IN MEMORIAM.

Assistant Quartermaster General and Keeper of Records of the National Encampment; Chairman of the Council of Administration of this department, and a member of the Soldiers Orphans School Commission J. Henry Holcomb died April 24, 1922. He was apointed Assistant Quartermaster General in 1898, and elected to the Council of Administration in 1912. Comrade Holcomb was well known through the department and he will be greatly missed at our Department Encampment, by the officers at headquarters, and his comrades generally.

OFFICIAL VISITS.

In company with other officers and members of the staff, I have visited upon invitation and without invitation a large number of Posts. All of these occasions have been most pleasant for the visitors and we trust were equally so, for the hosts. Diminishing numbers do not dull enthusiasm.

Comrades; This year marks fifty-seven years have passed since as boys we returned from service in the army and navy of our country. At that time there were persons with misgivings as to what we should do when freed from restraints and discipline controlling us in the service. Today we are old men and in place of the misgivings we are trusted and respected and pointed to as worthy citizens of a nation which our service helped to preserve, and we are proud of that respect which people so generally show us.

It is a great satisfaction that so many War Veterans have been permitted to live and enjoy, in thought at least, the many pleasant occasions of our annual encampment, but when we reflect and bring to mind the many that have been called hence, there is a shade of sadness connected with these celebrations that cannot be overcome. In our department during the last year death has been busy with rank and file, but lenient towards present and past department officers. Some of our most useful and valuable comrades to whom we look for guidance and advice are still with us, so let us be of good cheer, enjoy all that is possible of this life and be ready to obey the call to the next, confident that still greater and better things are in store for us.

IN CONCLUSION.

Again I thank you, not only for the honor I have received and enjoyed during the year, but also for the kindness and consideration shown me. and your good will in overlooking my shortcomings. I have endeavored to do my best and have at all times received the loyal support of my comrades. To the department officers and staff who have been faithful, I am under deep obligation, never to be forgotten. Let me assure you all of my sincere appreciation and express the hope that time will deal gently with you from now on. I wish to refer particularly in commendation of Assistant Adjutant General Samuel P. Town. Let me state the fact that you all know, but because of the fact may not remember that comrade Town has served continuously as Assistant Adjutant General of this department for ten years. He has received during each of these years the thanks of department commanders, but none of them can have felt more than I feel that his service is of great assistance and none of them can more heartily thank him than do I. At the close of this encampment I shall surrender this office. I earnestly ask that to my successor you give your hearty and continuous support as freely as you have given me.

REPORT OF SENIOR VICE DEPARTMENT COMMANDER

Allentown, Pa., April 15, 1922.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General.

The Constitution, Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic makes it a duty of an officer of the Department (in which he resides) to make a report to the Department Encampment of his part of the work done for the Department in the year which is now drawing to a close. When you last year at the Allentown Encampment, honored me, by electing me to this office, I was not unmindful of the duties which fell upon my shoulders, and so from the very beginning of my term, I have given my full time to the Department Commander in interest of the Department, and regret that I was not called upon to do more than I did.

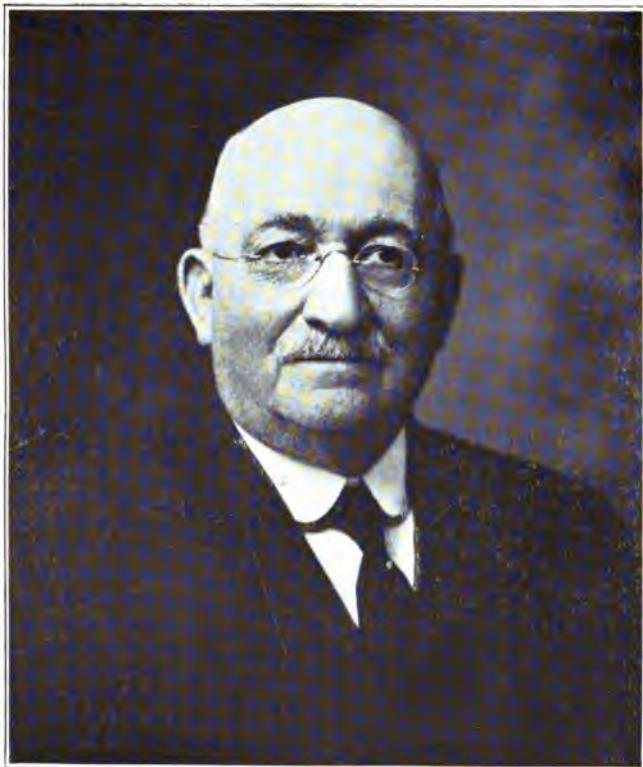

As an officer of the Department I became a member of the Council of Administration and save but two occasions, I attended every meeting held by them at Headquarters in Philadelphia.

During the past year, I have attended a number of public affairs, and addressed them the best way I knew how, and it was a great joy to me, to see and hear the great love that the people have for the "Grand Army of the Republic." I need not, of course, remind you of the fast decline of our organization, and I am fully confident that when we are gone, and the last comrade has answered the last roll-call, our sons and their sons, and a grateful public will forever cherish the Grand Army of the Republic. I would be unkind if I were not to mention the extreme courtesies extended to me by the Department Commander, the assistant Adjutant General, and the Posts of this section, and I assure them of my grateful appreciation. Before closing this report, I want to thank the Department of Pennsylvania for the confidence they placed in me, by electing me to this office at Allentown, and I trust I have done my duty to the satisfaction of the Department Encampment. I close with a sincere wish that my successor may receive the same acts of kindness during his administration.

Finally, comrades, I pray God's richest blessing may rest with you, that we will continue our work, and when the time comes, and come it will, we may use the sacred words, which are so appropriate in this Easter season, "It is finished!"

Yours fraternally in F. C. & L.,

W. H. KRAMER,
Senior Vice Department Commander.

Junior Vice Department Commander, 1921-1922.

REPORT OF JUNIOR VICE DEPARTMENT COMMANDER

---

Easton, Pa., April 17, 1922.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General.

Department of Pennsylvania,

Grand Army of the Republic.

Comrade: I have the honor to submit herewith my report as Junior Vice Department Commander.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the Comrades of the Department for the honor conferred on me at Allentown, Pa., June 1921. I have attended numerous affairs both public and others, where it was proper for the Department to be represented and to take an active part therein, such as dedications, installations, funerals of World War Veterans. I tendered my services to the Department Commander whenever it should please him to call on me. I attended the National Encampment at Indianapolis last September and attended its Sessions.

The request from the Posts for visitation seems to be a thing of the past, but this is not to be wondered at. The majority of our Comrades who were once very active in G. A. R. affairs prefer now to take things more quiet and easy, but their hearts and spirits are as young as ever for the Grand Army of the Republic.

In conclusion I wish to thank the Department Commander and all Department Officers and all Comrades of the Department for their cordial greetings and kind consideration on all occasions, I am,

Yours in F. C. and L.,

ALLEN J. CLIFTON,

Junior Vice Department Commander.

REPORT OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL

Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic, Philadelphia, May 15, 1922.

CHARLES C. TAYLOR, Department Commander.

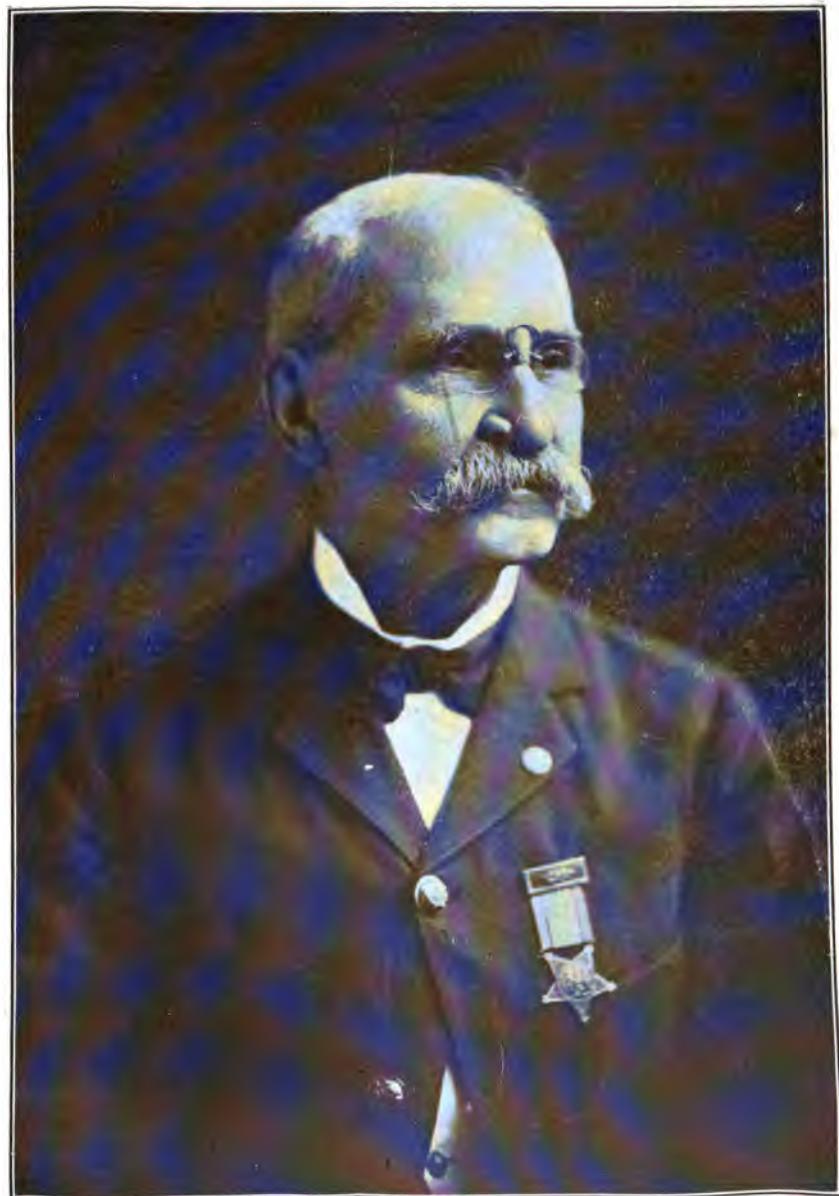

I have the honor to submit my report for the year ending December 31, 1921.

As the years pass it is reasonable that the numerical strength of our Department should decrease. By consulting the foregoing statement it will be observed that the actual loss in membership during the year was 1062, of that number 844 was occasioned by death, showing a loss from all other sources of but 218. There were 104 members added to our rolls by muster, which proves that there are still some veterans who desire to be enrolled in our ranks.

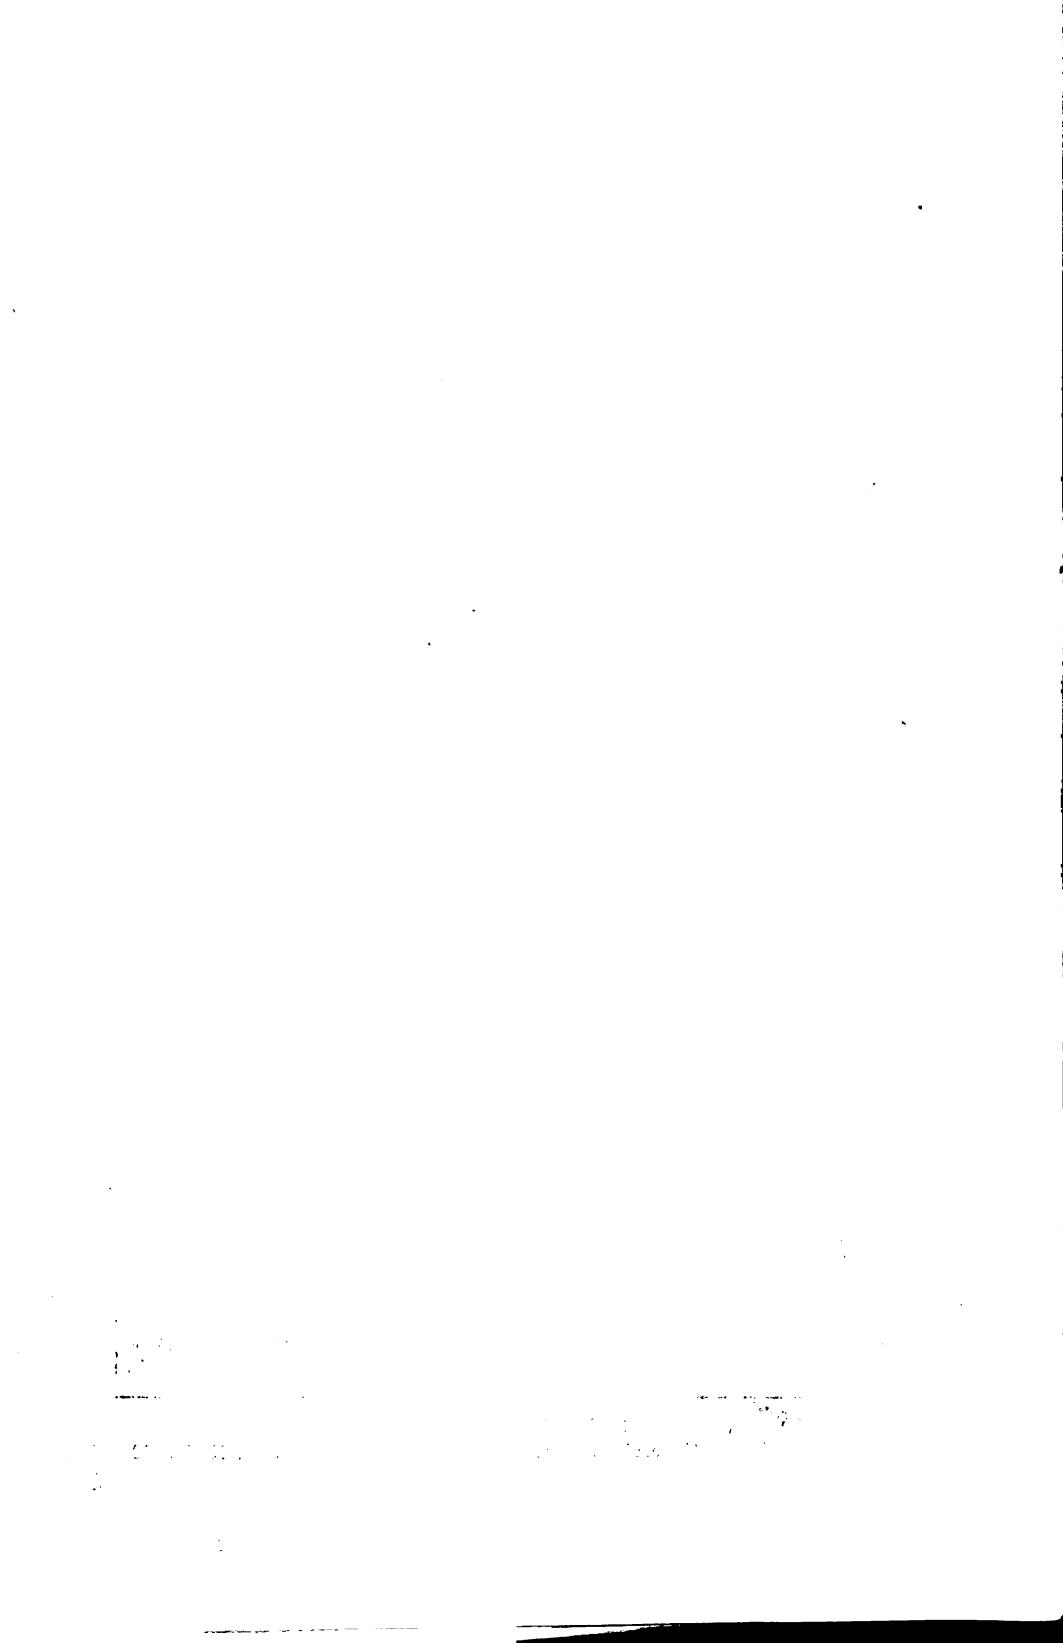

The following Posts were disbanded during the year: Nos. 358, 321, 368, 311, 554, 312, 603, and 390.

Quite a number of Posts, small in membership, will be compelled to disband in the near future, the advanced age of the comrades not permitting them to attend Post meetings or attend to other duties. Many of these Posts are holding together for the main purpose of celebrating Memorial Day. In the larger towns and cities the interest manifested by the comrades is most praiseworthy, the musters are well attended and patriotic gatherings frequent, evidencing the interest in the Grand Army is not on the wane.

SAMUEL P. TOWN

Assistant Adjutant General and Assistant Quartermaster General, 1921-1922

Your visitations to the Posts in Philadelphia and vicinity has proven very beneficial, renewed zeal upon the part of comrades is manifest.

The Fifty-fifth National Encampment held in Indianapolis, Ind. was well attended and enjoyed by those present. The citizens extended every courtesy to the comrades.

The interest of the Grand Army veteran, residing in the Soldiers and Sailors Home at Erie, Pa. are well looked after by the members of the Grand Army on the Board of Directors and the orphans of our comrades in the Soldiers Orphans School at Scotland, Pa. are well educated and cared for under the supervision of the Commission consisting of comrades of the Grand Army and State officials. Both of these institutions were established through the efforts of the comrades of this Department.

The comrades of this Department are indebted to the several women organizations for their many courtesies. The Woman's Relief Corps, The Ladies of the G. A. R., Daughters of Veterans and Sons of Veterans Auxiliary emulate each other in their efforts to aid the Posts and comrades.

The Home for the widow of the Civil War Veteran at Brookville, Pa. established and conducted by the Woman's Relief Corps; and the Homes for the widow at Hawkins Station and the Home for the Veteran and wife or widow at Philadelphia, under the auspices of the Ladies of the G. A. R. are monuments to the loyalty and devotion of these patriotic women.

I am gratified to report that the Sons of Veterans are making strenuous efforts to enlist in their ranks every son of a veteran of the Civil War. It has been my pleasure to witness in many instances the close companionship existing between the Posts and Camps.

The Department has sustained a serious loss in the deaths of three Past Department Commanders; Oliver C. Bosbyshell, Commander in 1869, James W. Latta, in 1876 and W. D. Stauffer in 1897. All these comrades were constant in their devotion to the Grand Army of the Republic.

Appended as "Exhibit A" giving the gains and losses of Posts from December 31, 1920 to December 31, 1921, also "Exhibit B" showing the number of posts and the membership at the close of each year from 1867 to 1921.

I take this occasion, Commander, to express my sincere appreciation of your comradship and consideration. Our close companionship during the past year will be in the years to come be a pleasant remembrance.

My thanks are extended to the comrades of your staff for their aid and encouragement and especially to the comrades associated with me at Headquarters, J. Henry Holcomb, Chairman Council of Administration and the members of the Council and to our Headquarters Clerk, Benj. L. Myers.

Yours in F. C. and L.

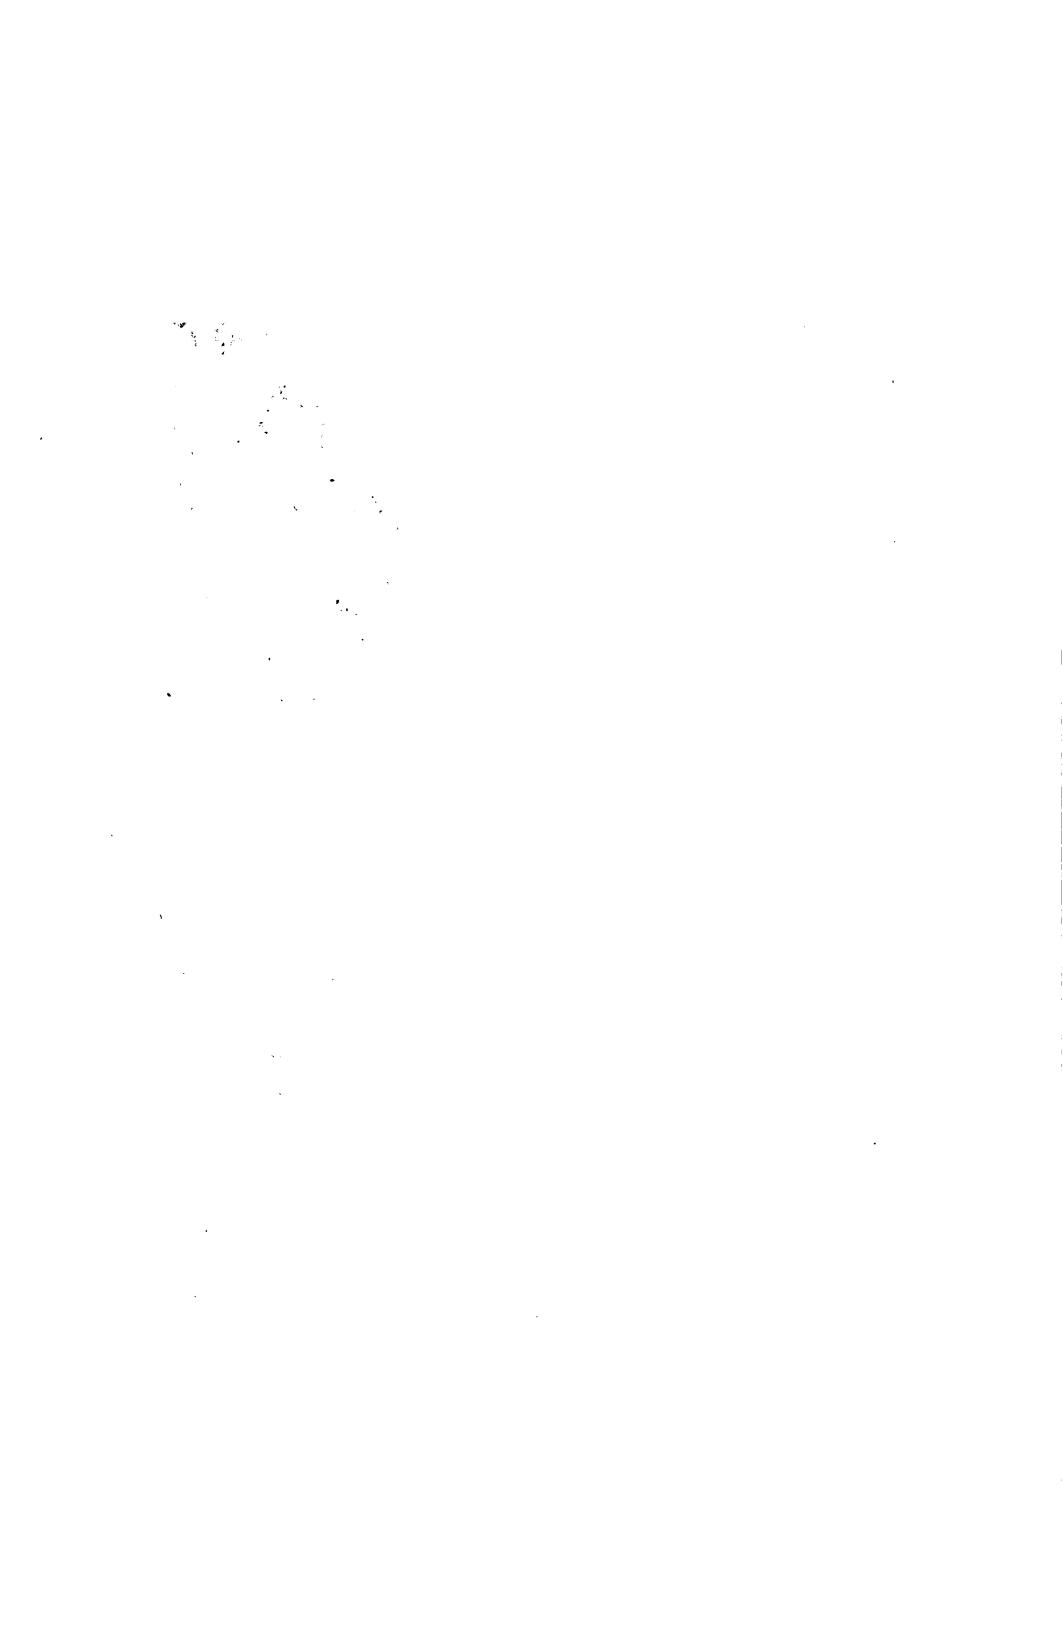

SAMUEL P. TOWN,

Assistant Adjutant General.

REPORT OF THE ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER GENERAL.

---

May 12, 1922.

CHARLES C. TAYLOR, Department Commander:

Comrade: I have the honor to submit my report for the fiscal year now closing.

By an examination of the following abstracts it will be observed that great care has been exercised in the expense of the Department. Every purchase is examined by the Council of Administration before payment and no debt is incurred without its sanction.

I take this opportunity to thank the officers and comrades for the many courtesies of which I have been the recipient during the past year, and to assure them that their kindness is appreciated.

There is no outstanding indebtedness—books, vouchers, checks, deposit books, etc., have been duly audited by the Council of Administration, showing amount of cash and value of bonds invested. Herewith note abstracts No. 1 to 7, which show amount of cash and value of bonds, etc., detailing every item of receipts during the year and also every expense paid after its approval by the Council of Administration.

- Abstract I. Current account.
- Abstract II. Receipts from per capita tax.
- Abstract III. Receipts from sale of supplies.
- Abstract IV. Detail of disbursements.
- Abstract V. Expended for purchase of supplies.
- Abstract VI. Disbursements monthly.
- Abstract VII. List of supplies on hand with cost.

Yours in F. C. and L.

SAMUEL P. TOWN,

Assistant Quartermaster General.

Report of Department Chaplain.

Huntingdon, Pa., May 25, 1922.

SAMUEL P. TOWN, Assistant Adjutant General.

Comrade: Another year with its joys and its sorrows has been added to the fast-disappearing life of our beloved order. Its joys have been abundant because it has pleased the Great Commander to continue life and health to any of us, with the privileges and duties which each year brings. As we gather here in our Annual Encampment once again to meet and greet each other we may appropriate the refrain of the Psalmist, "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life."

On the other hand the sorrows of life have also entered into the passing year for these we can not hope to escape. Our gratitude for the protecting care of a Heavenly Father is mingled with the sorrow, which accompanies our human experiences. Many familiar forms and voices are missing, not only from this Encampment but also from the homes of our Comrades. They no longer gather with us to share our duties, to give their counsel and to rejoice with us in the innumerable blessings which have been vouchsafed to our Country and have preserved our place and influence among earth's natures. We miss them—we hope to meet again, after toils and labors are over, in the haven of rest prepared for the faithful and surely these have been faithful and so have entered into the joy of our common Lord.

To those, who have with sad hearts laid their loved ones—our Comrades—away out of sight, though to memory ever dear, we extend a Comrade's sympathy and commend them to "the father of mercies and God of all comfort." The ruthless invader has indeed been busily engaged at his wonted task and 844 Comrades of this Department have obeyed his mandate during the year of 1921. To the many who remain to walk alone there may be consolation in the thought that the journey's end is not so far away and that soon a longed for reunion will come. The promise abides that there remains a rest in the Father's house of many mansions and we "shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

The duties of the position to which you, my Comrades, have with such partiality called me have indeed been so light that a tinge of regret arises at the close of another year that so little has been done to help, aid or assist you one and all. No calls for special personal service have been received beyond those that arise from local obligations. Gladly would a call for wider service be heeded, if practicable.

We rejoice greatly in the measure of prosperity granted to the Land we love and the place she has assumed among the Nations of the Earth as a leader into the paths of peace. Whatever may or may not have been accomplished by the Washington Conference, we have reason to be grateful that at least a first practical step has been taken under our leadership toward harmonizing the Nations and ending war's ruthlessness. We need to bear in mind that only the first step in this direction has been taken but without a beginning there can come no ending.

We hail and greet our Sons into whose hands must so soon fall the destinies of our treasured Country. To them we are leaving an example of patriotic devotion, alike in war and in peace, asking the God of Nations to endow them with a like spirit of loyalty and devotion to every obligation of citizenship, so that the Star Spangled Banner may long wave "Over the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave."

Respectfully submitted in F. C. and L.,

S. F. FORGEUS, Department Chaplain.

Report of Medical Director.

Erie, Pa., April 26, 1922.

Comrade Samuel P. Town, Assistant General, Department of Pennsylvania,
Grand Army of the Republic.

Dear Comrade:

Another year has gone and taken with it so many of our comrades whose friendship was so dear in the days which tried men's souls and whose after years kept those memories ever before us.

And if it is by reason of strength they have approached the four score years it is still with sadness we see their ranks thinning so rapidly.

The waiting list is growing shorter daily, and being on the Board of Examiners for pensions I see them anxiously waiting for that other twenty-two dollars to smooth the pathway of helplessness.

The Spanish-American Veterans are rapidly taking their places on the list of claimants left vacant by our departed comrades.

OF PENNSYLVANIA G. A. R. FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER

J. Henry Holcomb died at his home in Philadelphia on monday evening, April 24th. He was 75 years of age.

He was enrolled as Sergeant Major in the Third Regiment, Pennsylvania Artillery, on the fourth day of March 1864, and was discharged the 9th day of November, 1865. After his return from the Army, he was actively engaged in the commission business. Comrade Holcomb held the office of Quartermaster of Captain Phillip R. Schuyler Post No. 51 for many years. He was also signally honored by both the Department and National Encampments, having been elected a member of the Department Council of Administration continuously since 1912.

He received the appointment of Assistant Quartermaster General and Custodian of Records in 1895, and was reappointed every year. For many years he held the position of Chief Clerk of the Pennsylvania Commission on Soldiers Orphan schools, which position he resigned in 1920 and was appointed a member of the commission and was elected its secretary.

Comrade Holcomb held all the above mentioned positions at the time of his death. By his uniform courtesy and strict attention to his duties, Comrade Holcomb drew to him hosts of friends who mourn his loss and will greatly miss him.

The Quartermaster General submitted his report, which was approved.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

Those wishing to present resolutions will kindly hand them to the Assistant Adjutant General without reading, and he will refer them to the Committee on Resolutions.

PAST COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, WM. J. PATTERSON:

Department Commander, I have a resolution that I want to present at this encampment and at this time, and I want it acted upon and the privilege of reading it without referring to the Committee on Resolutions.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

There being no objections, you may proceed, Comrade Patterson.

PAST COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, WM. J. PATTERSON:

Comrades, I want to make a statement before I read this resolution, in regard to an action taken at Pittsburgh by the Grand Army Association of Allegheny County.

Post No. 151 presented for Commander-in-Chief the name of William T. Powell, whom you all know, and who stands equal to any comrade in the Department of Pennsylvania. That resolution was referred to the Allegheny County Grand Army Association, and by it unanimously adopted; but Comrade Powell, for reasons of his own, declined to be a candidate at the present time, and moved that the name of the comrade mentioned in this resolution be approved and presented here for action. I will therefore read the preamble and resolution adopted by the Grand Army Association, and by the representatives to the Department Encampment from Allegheny County at their meeting yesterday, and I was requested on behalf of that delegation to present the matter here; and I want to say that the endorsement of the comrade to be named has my hearty approval. I will read the paper:

"WHEREAS, Will F. Stewart Post No. 180 of Uniontown having presented the name of Comrade L. F. Arensberg, Past Department Commander, for Commander-in-Chief, and the same being referred to the Grand Army Association of Allegheny County for consideration and approval, a motion was adopted unanimously endorsing the candidacy of Comrade Arensberg and to present his name to the Encampment for the office of Commander-in-Chief.

"THEREFORE RESOLVED, That this Encampment heartily endorses the candidacy of Past Department Commander L. F. Arsenberg for Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the representatives of this Department be instructed to use all honorable means to that end at the next National Encampment."

I therefore move the adoption of this preamble and resolution.

Moved and seconded that preamble and resolution be adopted as read. Agreed to.

COMRADE H. H. SPAYD, Post No. 17: I want to ask a question and if we can get an answer I want to prepare a resolution to be handed to the Committee on Resolutions. Have I the privilege of doing so—asking a question and depending upon the answer from the Encampment. I want to prepare a resolution to be presented to the committee but I cannot well do it without knowing the feeling and understanding of the Encampment.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

There seems to be no objections to it, Comrade Spayd.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

Comrades, we have here with us today a representative from the National staff who represents our Commander-in-Chief,—Comrade Johnson, the Junior Vice-Commander-in-Chief, and I take pleasure in introducing him to you.

JUNIOR VICE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, HENRY A. JOHNSON:

Commander and comrades, you have all been delightfully entertained by some patriotic and sentimental expressions here today by the ladies of the various auxiliaries and others, and by the representatives of the Sons of Veterans, and now I do not propose to add anything to that.

It is a great pleasure to me to be here as a representative of the Commander-in-Chief who could not be present; it is a great pleasure to me because I am a Pennsylvania by adoption, though a Southern man, but I entered the service from Pennsylvania and I am proud of that fact, for the greatest act of my life was when I gave my service to the Government of the United States, as was yours.

Now, comrades, we have lived in the golden age of our glorious national history. You have been permitted to serve and take part in the great national events which have occurred since the war of the rebellion, and you rejoice, as all good patriotic citizens rejoice, at the great progress we have made in the nation, and the great achievements we have accomplished, and the leadership we now have in the world.

Comrades, let me say to you: try to encourage cheerful dispositions every day, be happy, be contented, do all you can to make others happy. Be careful in your daily way of living; be moderate in your indulgences, remembering that temperance in all things is conducive to longevity, and you want to preserve your lives as long as you can to do as much good as you can before you pass away. Do not talk about yourself as old men, but as young men.

I have been very much interested in the splendid manner in which you have conducted your services here today, everything has been so orderly and expeditious, and this is certainly a department of which the Grand Army can be justly proud. I thank you most sincerely. (Applause.)

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

Comrades, we will now take up new business, and we might first take up the place of meeting for our next encampment. I therefore will ask if any comrade has any place to offer for the next encampment, he will please present the invitation.

COMRADE J. H. PERSHING, Post No. 276:

Department Commander and comrades: In the name of the Grand Army comrades of that city, I wish to present an invitation this morning from a city, that in pioneer days was among the first to take on a form of civilization west of the Alleghenys, about eighty-five miles west of this on the Lincoln Highway and on the main line along the great world system of railroads, that of the Pennsylvania Central. The first military organization that was given form and marched to the tune of fife and drum in the very early history of Colonial days, was formed where Greensburg now is. The first county seat there was burned by the Indians in 1782, and four years thereafter Greensburg took its place upon the map, and it is there today. The first military organization of Revolutionary days was called Colonel Proctor's Westmoreland provincials, which became a very important factor in the Western part of the State.

On May 16, 1775, the first Declaration of Independence that was written in the colonies was written there, and that took place on May 16th of that year, fourteen months before the 4th of July Declaration of Independence of 1776. That is a matter of history.

Greensburg has the facilities to entertain the next encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Through the courtesy of our Mayor, the hand of invitation has been extended to you, in which the Chamber of Commerce and all our citizens join. We have there eight troops of Boys Scouts that will be at your service in connection with the occasion, and we have two ladies circles. There are eleven churches, seven hotels, one of which is about four stories higher than the Penn-Alto of this city; that is almost finished now, and will be entirely finished in the course of the next three or four months. We have two armories, one of which will hold 2,000 people, and we have an auditorium in our high school that will seat from 1600 to 2000.

Greensburg is the vestibule of Pittsburgh, so to speak, and in fact, if you want to go to Pittsburgh, you must of necessity go through Greensburg. We are just about thirty miles from the city of Pittsburgh. And in regard to financial conditions, I might say at this moment that $1,000 is already vouched now towards the expenses of the encampment, and if that is not sufficient, $500 additional will be added. That speaks for itself.

The people of Greensburg are patriotic above all things. They believe that next to the love of God is love of country; they believe that next to Communion day is Memorial Day, for on Communion day we remember the sufferings and death of the Savior of the World, while on Memorial Day we remember the sufferings of the dead and the saviors of the nation. They believe that next to Christmas is the Fourth of July, for Christ was born on Christmas Day, and Uncle Sam was born on the Fourth of July. The people of Greensburg believe that next to the Lord God Almighty is Uncle Sam, and that Uncle Sam lives over there at Greensburg. (Applause.)

COMRADE J. W. BROWN, Post No. 128:

On behalf of the Grand Army comrades of Allegheny County, I want to second the nomination that the next Encampment be held at Greensburg.

COMRADE J. W. KAUFFMAN, Post No. 44:

Department Commander and comrades, the general custom has been for the Grand Army to go through the state. We have been at Allentown, Lancaster, Harrisburg, now at Altoona, so, boys, let's go to the western part of the state at this time and give them some thing to do. We all know Greensburg, and know that it is a place that can take care of us, and that the people are patriotic and hospitable. There is no better place that I know of except Huntingdon, and Huntingdon is not big enough to take care of the Encampment of the Department of Pennsylvania. Let us go to Greensburg in 1923!

COMRADE CYPRUS KREPPS, Post No. 141:

Comrades, I come from Bradford, Pennsylvania and representing the comrades of that city, and in the name of the Mayor, the City Council, and all the patriotic organizations, I invite you to hold your Encampment next year in our beautiful city. We have never had the pleasure of entertaining the comrades in their Department Encampment; in fact it has not been held in our neighborhood since 1898, when it was entertained at Oil City.

Comrades, I bring you this morning a letter of invitation signed by our Mayor; from the different posts of the Grand Army of the Republic; from the American Legion; and from our City Council, and the glad hand will be extended to you by all our citizens, who will be delighted to entertain the Grand Army of the Republic.

We can take care of you very well. We have six separate military organizations, six troops of Boy Scouts, also five troops of Girl Scouts. We have a State Armory that has been donated to me for the full use of the Department during the Encampment, and I know that every courtesy and form of entertainment will be tendered you if you come to our splendid City of Bradford. (Applause.)

ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL TOWN:

I have received telegrams from the Mayor of Bradford also from the Secretary of the Rotary Club, inviting us to Bradford for our next Annual Encampment, and assuring us of a hearty welcome. I have also received a

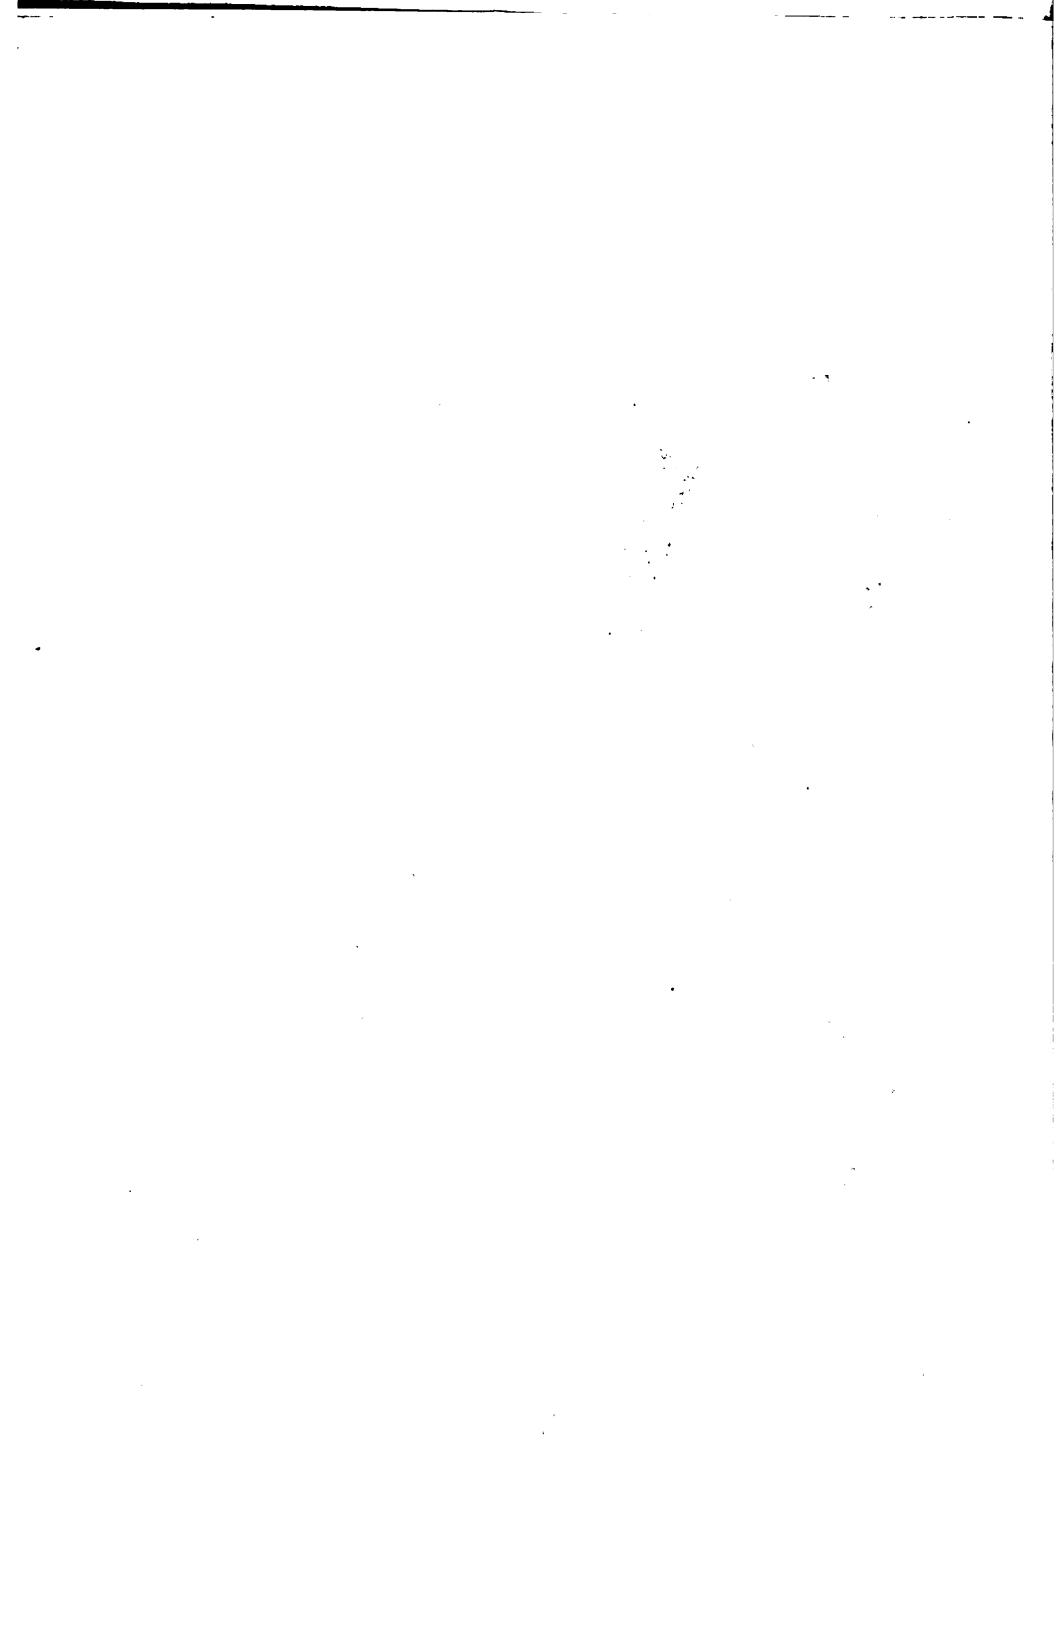

JOHN V. SAILER.
Department Inspector, 1921-1922.

W. T. KENNEDY
Chief Mustering Officer, 1921-1922

letter from their Chamber of Commerce to the same effect. A letter also has been received from the Chamber of Commerce of Greensburg, inviting us to come to Greensburg in 1923.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER GEORGE RHOADS:

Comrades, I don't want to be derelict in my duty. I was requested by the posts of Gettysburg and the Sons of Veterans there to invite you next year to Gettysburg, for this reason: that next year will be the 60th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg. There is only one question about it, and that is this: we were there on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of July, 1863. Our encampment does not meet at that time. Now, in talking the matter over with several of the prominent leaders of the Grand Army of the Republic, they thought it would be well for us to go to work and have that meeting there outside of the Grand Army Encampment, and go there on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of July, and I think you will all enjoy it.

I presented Gettysburg at this time at the request of Comrade Miller and Comrade McAllister of the posts of Gettysburg. They say they can take care of us. However, I am not going to press this, as I believe the comrades want to go to Greensburg.

Vote taken as to place for holding next Annual Encampment of this Department, at the close of which the Department Commander announced that Greensburg had been selected for that purpose.

Moved and seconded that a recess be taken until two o'clock. Agreed to.

---

Wednesday, 2 P. M., June 7, 1922.

The Department Encampment was called to order by the Department Commander at the designated hour.

ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL TOWN:

Comrades, I have here a letter from a member of the 72nd Pennsylvania Volunteers complaining of the action of the United States Government. He says that within the last few days every man who has reached the age of sixty-five years, old soldiers included, have received notice to retire from the United States service on account of old age. He takes exception to that and would like the Grand Army of the Republic to take exception to it.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

The next business in order will be the nomination of officers to serve this Department for the ensuing year. The first nomination will be for Department Commander.

COMRADE PHILIP RUDY, Post No. 84, Lancaster:

Department Commander and comrades, a duty has been assigned to me this morning which affords me infinite pleasure, one that comes to every few comrades in a lifetime, and that is to nominate a candidate for Commander of this Department.

I will place in nomination a comrade whom you all know, for you have been meeting him in these Department Encampments for fifty years. He has been prominent in every good work in this Department, and in his own home town he is Treasurer of the Monumental Association, Treasurer of the Memorial Day Committee. He is also Treasurer of the Soldiers Orphan School at Scotland, and of other different organizations, and above and beyond everything else the Grand Army of the Republic has been very dear to his heart, as all of you probably know. No task is too hard for him, no duty ever assigned to him by this Department has been shirked; rather has it always been his pleasure to do everything he could for all his comrades. And so, I take great pleasure today in placing in nomination the name of my friend and comrade, Washington F. Hambright, of Post No. 405, Lancaster. (Applause.)

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER NOAH DIETRICH:

I desire to second the nomination of Comrade Hambright, a true and loyal comrade, and I hope he will be elected unanimously.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER C. H. RUHE:

Commander and comrades: you have heard the nomination made for the next Department Commander, and in listening to it, I am reminded of an incident that occurred many years ago, when Comrade Hambright and I first became acquainted. He was then one of the active members of the Department of Pennsylvania, attending various encampments of the Department, and also being a consistant attendant at the National Encampment. He had an idea at that time that he would like to be the Department Commander of Pennsylvania, and so expressed himself to me. We having become personal friends, I told him that when that time arrived, I would be very glad to do what I could for him. Circumstances changed the conditions so that I became the Department Commander before he did, but that makes no difference as far as our relations are concerned, and I today vividly recall the promise I made him at that time, and I am here to fulfill it, just as I fulfill every promise that I make to a comrade, whether I want to do something for that comrade or whether I want to reprove that comrade for something which is not right; and today I made good my promise, and say, that I most heartily second the nomination of Comrade Hambright.

PAST COMMANDER IN CHIEF PATTERSON:

On behalf of the Allegheny County representatives, I second the nomination of Comrade Hambright for Department Commander.

COMRADE J. W. KAUFFMAN, Post No. 44:

Comrade Hambright and I belonged to the same corporation for years—he about forty-two years, and I about fifty years, and I know he has faithfully performed his duties and rendered excellent services all the way through. I have met him for years past in these Encampments, and have always found him ready and willing to perform any duty assigned to him, and at all times a true and loyal comrade of the Grand Army of the Republic.

I take great pleasure in seconding his nomination, and in addition move that nominations close and that Comrade Hambright be unanimously elected Department Commander by this Encampment.

COMRADE HUGH R. FULTON, Post No. 84:

I want to second the nomination of Comrade Hambright, or second the motion to close nominations offered, both of which motions are before the house.

I have known Comrade Hambright for fifty-two years—as a Grand Army man for fifty years—and I know that all during those fifty years, half a century, he has been a good Grand Army man; and I think that all the tests that have been put to him—as treasurer of these different societies that have been mentioned, and as a member of the Department Encampments and National Encampments all these years, have proven he is a good Grand Army man and worthy of this nomination and election.

In Lancaster they honor the Grand Army of the Republic they respect the Grand Army of the Republic; they showed you honor when you came there, and some time again, possibly, we will have the honor of showing our respect for the Grand Army of the Republic.

I hope sincerely that the sentiment of this Department Encampment will be to elect Comrade Hambright unanimously.

COMRADE HOY, Post. No. 58:

Department Commander, I rise to second the nomination of Comrade Hambright. I have known him for many years, and I have always known him to be a comrade in everything that the word implies. Post No. 58 of Harrisburg has unanimously endorsed him, and certaintly I hope he will be our next Department Commander.

Moved and seconded that nominations close, and that the Assistant Adjutant General cast the unanimous vote of the encampment for Comrade Washington F. Hambright, Post No. 405, Lancaster.

The Assistant Adjutant General cast the vote of the Encampment for Comrade Washington F. Hambright as Department Commander for the ensuing year.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

I now declare Comrade Washington F. Hambright, Post No. 405, elected Department Commander for the ensuing year.

The Officer of the Day will please conduct the Department Commander-elect to this platform, so the boys can look him over.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

Comrades, I have the honor and the very great pleasure of presenting to you your Department Commander-elect, Washington F. Hambright.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER-ELECT, WASHINGTON F. HAMBRIGHT:

Commander and comrades, after listening to the encomiums heaped upon me, one would think I were a saint, if you boys didn't know better; but really, Comrades, I can hardly find words to express my gratitude for this evidence of you esteem in selecting me from more than eight thousand worthy comrades to be your Commander for the coming year.

I have made no promise during my canvass, but this promise I will make now: that I will use my best efforts to maintain the high standard of the Department of Pennsylvania; but, comrades, I will need the hearty co-operation of each individual and each Post. We may not be successful in increasing the numerical strength of the Department, but, comrades, there are hundreds of members who have been suspended in the past years, through carelessness principally, or through other circumstances that prevented their attendance at their Post meetings, but I believe that with a little personal effort on your part, many of them could be reinstated. In that way we could keep our ranks closed up by replacing those who are called beyond.

Comrades, the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic was first organized to assist our worthy comrades who were diseased, maimed and crippled, and to look after their widows and orphans. All that work has been accomplished through the influence of the Grand Army of the Republic, pensions have been increased, and today you are getting a very fair pension from the United States Government. Through the influence of the Grand Army of the Republic, homes have been established, and particularly homes for the orphans not only of the veterans of the War of the Rebellion, but also the Spanish-American War veterans, and now the World War veterans.

Sometimes I think that the work of the Grand Army of the Republic has been accomplished, but not yet; it will not be until the last comrade has gone to his long home. There are many things to look after. There is no other organization on the face of this earth, and probably in the United States of America no other class of citizens, so deeply interested in the affairs of our government as the Grand Army of the Republic. So, comrades, we should look after legislation, try to encourage legislation in reference to immigration. I think the doors of immigration should be more carefully guarded, and, in fact, closed for a while, because I learned today that the most of the leaders in this coal mine strike are Italians, Italian brigands probably, who are not citizens of this country, most likely, and why should we allow those men to agitate strikes, disorder and anarchy, and issue all kinds of threats against our peaceful land? Now, comrades, watch that closely; we should be deeply interested in everything affecting the progress, harmony and peace of our great country.

Comrades, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for this mark of your esteem, and I trust that our administration may be peaceful, harmonious, and that we may, at the end of the year, say we have done our duty, and that our slogan shall still continue to be: "One country, one language, one flag"! (Applause.)

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER J. D. HICKS:

Comrades, as you know, we have two Posts in Altoona; the older Post is No. 62, and was named after Lieutenant Stephen Potts, who gave his life at the battle of Fredericksburg. The other Post is No. 468, and both are in successful operation today. No. 468 is named after a private soldier who was my messmate, and who received his death wound at the Battle of Antietam, Fred C. Ward. It was my pleasure to assist at an installation, rather an initiation of a comrade whom we afterwards elected Commander of the Post, and he filled the bill most satisfactorily. Now, both of our Posts here have passed a resolution endorsing that comrade for Senior Vice Department Commander of this splendid Department, and it is my pleasure today to place the name of that comrade in nomination for that office. He is a comrade who had a splendid military record, and served with distinction and honor throughout the War, and therefore, on behalf of the comrades of Altoona, I commend to your favor David G. McCullough for Senior Vice Commander.

As chairman of the general committee to arrange for your reception in Altoona, it was my pleasure to appoint Comrade McCullough as chairman of the reception committee, and he has aided largely in making this encampment a success. I recommend him to you favorable consideration, and place him in nomination for the office of Senior Vice Department Commander.

COMRADE H. V. CARLES, Post No. 468:

As a member of Post No. 468, I heartily second the nomination of Comrade McCullough. I have known him for many years, and I can testify to the fact that he has been one of the most faithful and loyal comrades we have had in the city of Altoona. He is a comrade whom we are all proud of, and we heartily endorse him.

Moved and seconded that nominations for Senior Vice Department Commander close, and that the Assistant Adjutant General cast the unanimous vote of the encampment for Comrade David G. McCullough, Post No. 62, Altoona. Agreed to.

The Assistant Adjutant General cast the vote of the Encampment for Comrade David G. McCullough for Senior Vice Department Commander for the ensuing year, and the Department Commander declared him elected.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

The Officer of the Day will please conduct the Senior Vice Department Commander-elect to this platform.

Comrades, I take great pleasure in presenting to you your newly elected Senior Vice Department Commander, Comrade David G. McCullough.

SENIOR VICE DEPARTMENT COMMANDER ELECT McCULLOUGH:

Comrades, I am a practical business man, and not a speaker. I have been in business for a long time in Altoona and Johnstown, and have devoted most of my time to that, and have made very few speeches. I went to the army from the Johnstown Reserves, and joined Company A, 54th Pennsylvania, and served until February, 1864; reenlisted for another three years as a veteran, and served until I was wounded at the Battle of New Market on the 15th of May, 1864.

I certainly thank you, Comrades, for this honor bestowed upon me today in selecting me your Senior Vice Department Commander for the ensuing year, and whatever duties are assigned to me, I can assure you will be performed to the best of my ability, and, I hope, to your entire satisfaction. (Applause.)

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

The next business in order is nomination for Junior Vice Department Commander.

COMRADE J. W. REAMER, Post No. 220:

Commander and comrades, I desire to place in nomination for the office of Junior Vice Department Commander, a comrade from Rutherford B. Hayes Post No. 167, of Oil City. You have already elected a comrade from the Eastern part of the State for your Department Commander; a comrade from the central part of the State for your Senior Vice Department Commander, and the comrade I am nominating hails from the western part of Pennsylvania. He is a comrade I have known for over forty years, a resident of Oil City, and holding a responsible position in the city government; and irrespective of the fact that year after year that government has been changed and new men have taken the places of old, he has never been superseded, and I doubt whether he will ever be so long as he desires to retain his position.

Comrades, I nominate for Junior Vice Department Commander for the ensuing year, Comrade A. M. Breckenridge, of Post No. 167, and I hope you will elect him.

DEPARTMENT PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR CAMPBELL STANTON:

On behalf of the Allegheny County Grand Army Association, I am instructed to second the nomination of this most worthy comrade, A. M. Breckenridge, for Junior Vice Department Commander, and hope he will be elected unanimously.

Moved and seconded that nominations for Junior Vice Department Commander close, and that the Assistant Adjutant General cast the unanimous vote of the encampment for Comrade A. M. Breckenridge, of Post No. 167, for Junior Vice Department Commander for the ensuing year. Agreed to.

The Assistant Adjutant General cast the vote of the Encampment for Comrade A. M. Breckenridge, Post No. 167, for Junior Vice Department Commander for the ensuing year, and the Department Commander declared him duly elected.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

The Officer of the Day will escort the Junior Vice Department Commander-elect to this platform.

Comrades, I have the pleasure of presenting to you your Junior Vice Department Commander-elect—Comrade A. M. Breckenridge, of Oil City.

JUNIOR VICE DEPARTMENT COMMANDER-ELECT, A. M.

BRECKENRIDGE: Comrades, I am very thankful to you for the honor you have done me today in electing to the office of Junior Vice Department Commander of the great Department of Pennsylvania. I think any office in the Grand Army of the Republic is an honor that cannot be surpassed in any organization in the world. I have been a member of the Grand Army of the Republic since 1884, and during that time I held office in my Post so continuously that I absolutely refused to serve at last, and told them I wanted a vacation.

Comrades, I want to thank you again for what you have done for me, and in addition, I want to remind you that the Grand Army of the Republic still has work to do. There is no greater menance to our country today, I believe, than the utter disregard of law in this country; men will not stop at anything to gain their point; and therefore I think that every member of the Grand Army of the Republic should be right back of this administration and do their best to uphold the law of this country. (Applause.)

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

The next business in order is nominations for Medical Director.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER J. ANDREW WILT:

On behalf of my old comrade, Thomas H. Cole, who expected to be here today, but was unable to be present, I wish to nominate Dr. J. S. Silliman for Medical Director of this Department.

COMRADE H. H. BENGOUGH, Post No. 157: Out of consideration for that splendid old comrade lying ill up at his home in Erie, I want to second the nomination of Dr. Silliman for Medical Director.

Moved and seconded that nominations for Medical Director close, and that the Assistant Adjutant General be directed to cast the unanimous vote of the Encampment for Comrade J. E. Silliman, of Post No. 67, Erie. Agreed to

The Assistant Adjutant General cast the vote of the Encampment for Comrade J. E. Silliman, of Post No. 67, for Medical Director, and the Department Commander declared him elected.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

The next business in order is nominations for Department Chaplain.

DEPARTMENT PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR, CAMPBELL STANTON:

Department Commander, we had a very dear comrade who at each Encampment took great delight in presenting the name of the Department Chaplain. That dear comrade ceases to be, and I am here to take his place, and to offer in nomination the name of Rev. S. F. Forgeus, of Post No. 44, Huntingdon, for Department Chaplain for the ensuing year.

COMRADE J. B. PATRICK, Post No. 58:

Department Commander, on behalf of Post No. 58, of Harrisburg, I desire to second the nomination of Comrade Forgeus for Department Chaplain.

It has been the custom heretofore to continue to reelect the comrade holding this position. We all remember that splendid comrade, Chaplain Sayres, who was re-elected year after year, and I think Commander and comrades, that it is a splendid thing to re-elect the Department Chaplain from year to year. I therefore take great pleasure in seconding the nomination of Comrade Forgeus.

Moved and seconded that nomination close, and that the Assistant Adjutant General be directed to cast the unanimous vote of the Encampment for Comrade S. F. Forgeus, Post No. 44, for Department Chaplain, agreed to.

The Assistant Adjutant General cast the vote of the Encampment for Comrade S. F. Forgeus, Post No. 44, for Department Chaplain for the ensuing year, and the Department Commander declared him elected.

DEPARTMENT CHAPLAIN, S. F. FORGEUS:

Department Commander, and comrades: what remains to be said? I can put it all into three words: I thank you!

I wish very much indeed that it were my power to do more for my comrades than has fallen to my lot during the time I have occupied this position. Perhaps in the providence of our kind Heavenly Father, the time may come before such a great while when relief will be afforded me from certain duties that are now imposed upon me, and I may be able to give more time, and to spend my time more among my comrades, and cheer and encourage them in the work that yet remains for us to do.

There can be no body of men on the face of God's earth that have more interest in the welfare of this nation than you, my comrades. We have done the work, in the providence of God, that has made our nation what it is, and as you have heard, over and over again, you made it possible for our sons and our grandsons to do splendid work for humanity and civilization the world over. In due time, I believe, in the guidance of nations by our Heavenly Father, there shall be a better understanding among men. The eyes of the people of Europe have been opened to the possibilities that may lie within their reach if they prepare themselves to receive the blessings that God wants to visit upon his creatures as he has placed them in positions of responsibility and the care of this world that he has given to us, I thank you, Comrades.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER:

The next business in order is nominations for Council of Administration.

COMRADE H. BENGOUGH, Post No. 157:

Comrades, we meet in these encampments every year, and we present the business necessary, but there is a time when we are not in action, and we have to provide, and provide carefully let me tell you, for the transaction of the business of this department, and from year to year I have taken very great interest in the business, in our business, and I don't think very much gets away from me for I keep pretty well posted,

During the past year that splendid comrade, no better ever stepped in shoe leather, who served us for many years not only as a member of the Council of Administration but in many other capacities, was called home by God, and he has gone. We have to provide for that vacancy, and I have in mind a comrade who did service in the very same field years ago, and I believe it is to our best interests to have him back there, and I am going to nominate for the Council of Administration, and I don't believe you will regret it, H. T. Stanwood, Post No. 334; John Dougherty, Post No. 8; J. Y. Chessrown, Post No. 157; Wm. McEwan, Post No. 1; and Benj. L. Myers, Post No. 46.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER-ELECT HAMBRIGHT:

Department Commander, the Council of Administration is the business end of the administration of the department, and it is to my interest to see that it is properly attended to. I know the comrades just mentioned have been tried and not found wanting, and I therefore second that nomination, and move that nominations close and that the rules be suspected and the Assistant Adjutant General cast the vote of this encampment for those comrades.

Motion seconded and agreed to.

The Assistant Adjutant General cast the vote of the encampment for Comrades H. T. Stanwood, Post No. 334; John Dougherty, Post No. 8; J. Y. Chessrown, Post No. 157; Wm. McEwan, Post No. 1, and Benj. L. Myers, Post No. 46, and the Department Commander declared them elected.

COMRADE H. H. BENGOUGH, Post No. 157:

Comrades, after our election a couple of years ago, I was walking down the street from the hall, and a very good comrade came up to me and said, "Comrade Bengough, will you allow me to ask you a question so I can get some information?" I said, "Certainly." "Well," he said, "why is it that you put so many fellows on the Council of Administration from Philadelphia?" I said, "I shall be very glad to explain. We do that to try to keep down the expenses of the department, railroad fares, and so on. The headquarters are right there in Philadelphia, and appointing the comrades in that way obviates the necessity of paying their railroad fares and other expenses. We also have a comrade from Pittsburgh on the Council of Administration, but he is an old railroad man, and travels on a pass and his railroad fare doesn't cost him anything, and therefore we manage to have one fellow on the Council of Administration from Pittsburgh to watch those Philadelphia cusses." (Laughter and Applause.)

The Assistant Adjutant General presented and read to the Encampment the report of the committee on the Address of the Department Commander, and the Reports of the Senior and Junior Vice Department Commanders, and it was moved and seconded that the recommendations therein be adopted. Agreed to.

Altoona, Pa., June 7, 1922.

To the Department Encampment:

Taylor, and find it a brief summary of his labors for the past year in behalf of the comrades of this Department; and report shows that for the past year this department has been under the guidance of an energetic, competent and efficient Commander, and your committee recommend that a committee be appointed to prepare and present a suitable testimonial to Charles C. Taylor as a recognition of his faithful services.

The reports of the Senior and Junior Vice Department Commanders show faithful and loyal services to the Commander, the comrades and the Grand Army of the Republic, and each is entitled and hereby tendered the thanks of the comrades of this department.

Altoona, Pa., June 7, 1922.

To the Department Encampment:

The members of the Committee to whom was referred the reports of the Assistant Adjutant General and Assistant Quartermaster General for the past year, heartily join in commending the reports made by Comrade Samuel P. Town, for the clear and concise manner in which he has submitted same for the information of this Encampment.

We note with regret that the membership of the Department has been reduced by death for the year ending December 31, 1921, by eight hundred and forty-four comrades an unerring reminder to all of the force of the irrevocable laws of nature.

The report of the Assistant Quartermaster-General shows that the rapidly decreasing membership and consequent reduction in income admonishes us that great care must be exercised in the expenditure of our funds.

We are pleased to emphasize the fact that at the close of this term Comrade Town will have served fourteen years with such marked ability and fraternal faithfulness as Assistant Adjutant General of this Department as to win the approbation of all our comrades, and we voice the hope that his life and usefulness may be spared for many years to come.

Fraternally submitted in F. C. & L.,

We thank Thee for these blessings; we thank Thee for the rest of the night, for the beauty of this day, and we seek for guidance and direction in the discharge of the duties and obligations of the business that shall come before us in the present session.

Let Thy blessing rest upon us as we return to our homes, comfort and strengthen those comrades unable to be with us, and especially those who are suffering. Give unto them such relief and peace and patience as Thou alone canst impart.

Let Thy blessing rest upon us. Keep, guide and lead us, oh Lord, our God, in the duties that we may perform among the nations of the earth. We thank Thee for the opportunities that Thou didst give unto us to do something in the name of God and humanity, for our land and the nations of the earth in the days that are past. We thank Thee for the enjoyments that have come to us, for the renewed friendships, for the cheering words and warm handshakes of this occasion. Bless us, as we separate one from the other, keep us and preserve us, oh, Lord, our Father, in Thine own protecting arms of love as we return to our homes and our loved ones, and let Thy blessing rest upon us so that we may at last enter into the rest that Thou hast promised in Thy heavenly home to those who love and serve Thee. We ask it in the name of our Blessed Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Assistant Adjutant General presented and read to the Encampment the report of the Committee on the Report of the Department Patriotic Instructor, which, upon motion, was adopted as read.

Altoona, June 8, 1922.

To the Department Encampment:

Your committee to whom was referred the annual report of Comrade Campbell Staton, our Patriotic Instructor, beg leave to submit the following:

We have carefully read the report, and note that Comrade Stanton refers to the increasing interest manifested in teaching patriotism in our schools, public, parochial and private, and all the organizations that are encouraging the spirit of patriotism, and with it, of course, love for our country and honor of its flag.

Comrade Stanton anticipates in the near future that the subject of Patriotism will be a prescribed course in our Public Schools, and it is to be expected that the members of the Grand Army of the Republic in their visitations to the schools of our beloved country will advocate the teaching of patriotism therein.

The celebration of General Grant's birthday in the various schools, churches, and by the organizations, is also mentioned in the report of Comrade Stanton, and it was indeed the source of great pleasure to the members of the Grand Army of the Republic to know how generally the One-hundredth Birthday of General Grant was observed. His greatness as a soldier, a statesman, and a citizen, was placed in a true light before our people.

Comrade Stanton has given to his Department additional zeal, and no doubt will continue in the good work of carrying out the principles of the Grand Army of the Republic, in promoting the thought, as well as the fact, that we are "One Country under one Flag."

Respectfully submitted,

Report of the Committee on Resolutions.

---

PAST COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, WM. J. PATTERSON: Comrades, your Committee on Resolutions have here five resolutions which were presented, and to which we have given very careful attention and consideration.

No. 1.

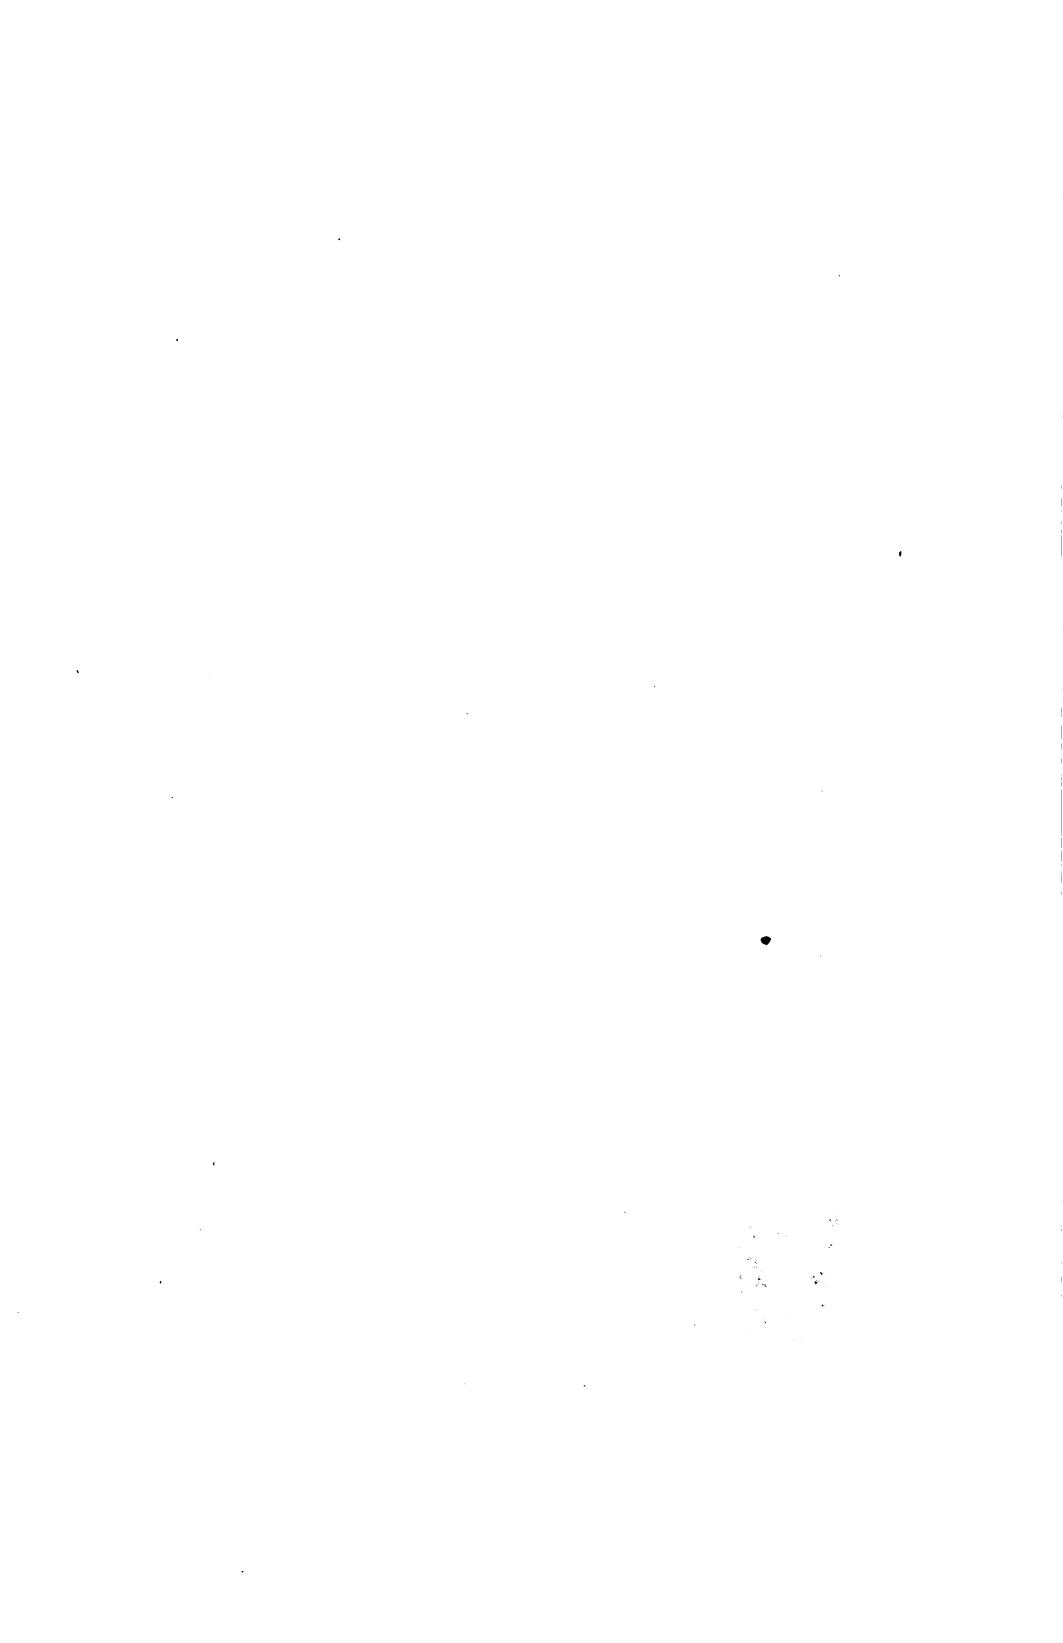

Here is a preamble and resolution presented by Post No. 100, of New Castle, as follows:

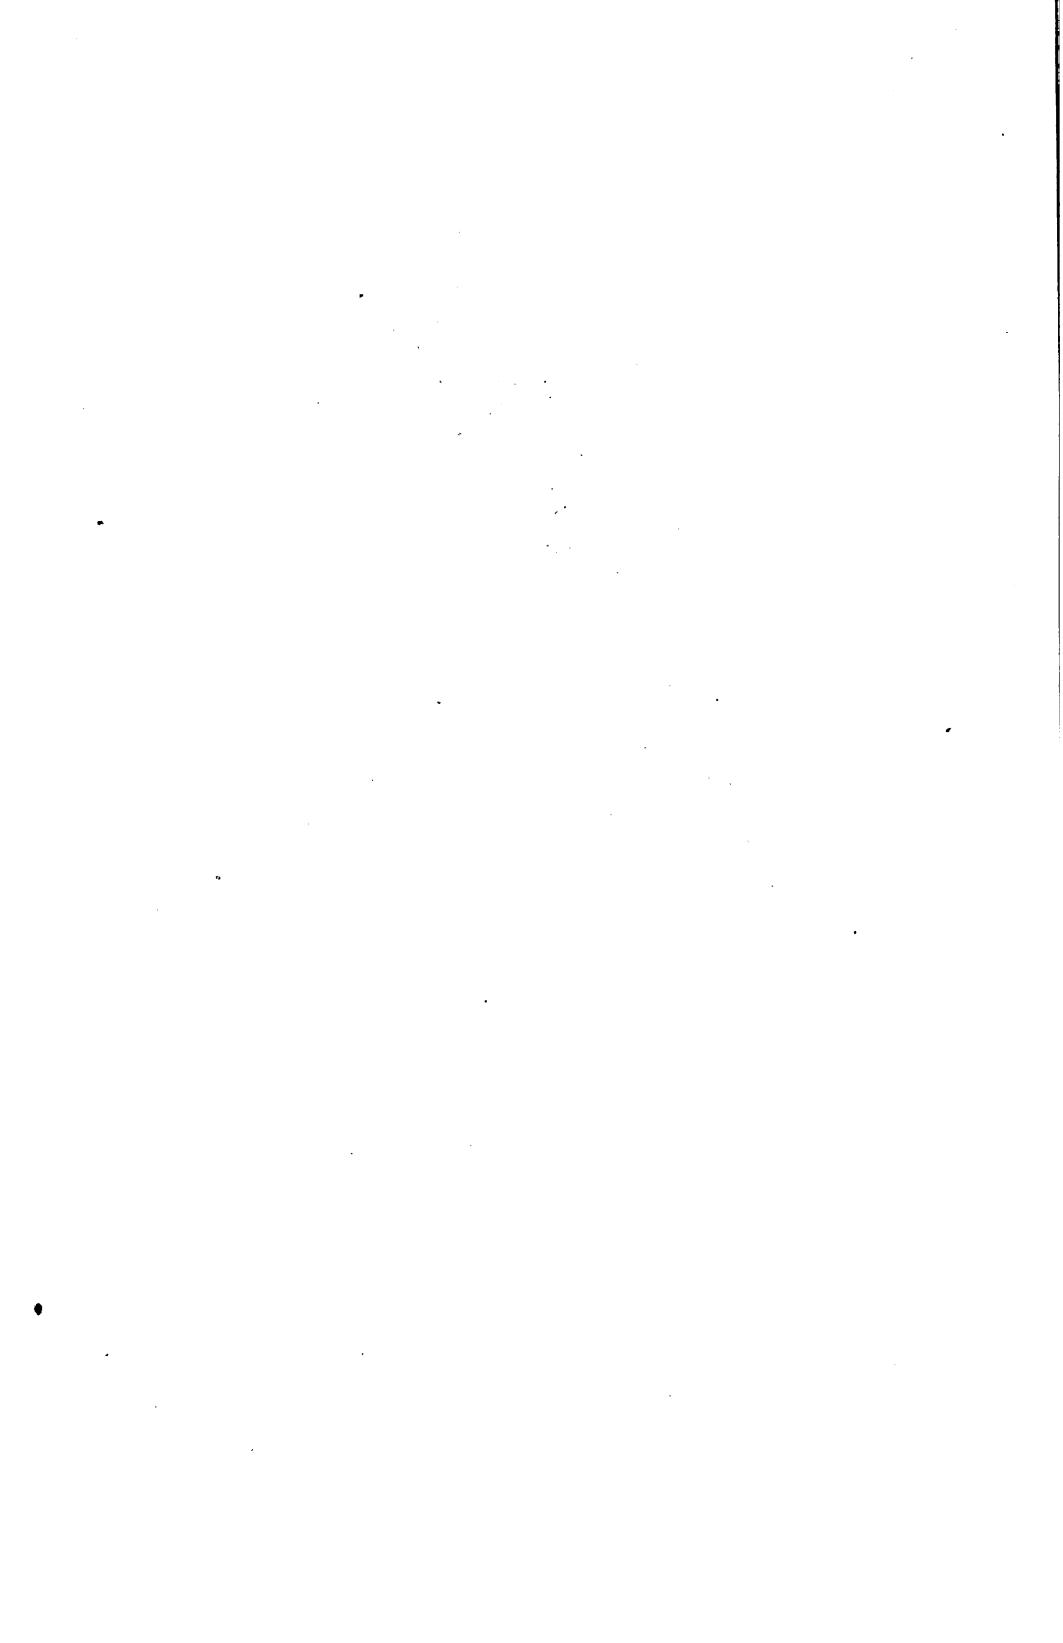

"WHEREAS, the number of members in many Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic have been so much reduced that in many Posts it is difficult, and in others impossible, to secure comrades who are able to conduct the burial service of a deceased comrade. THEREFORE RESOLVED:

1. That our National Encampment be asked to adopt a rule or regulation enabling Posts to secure the service of members of Camps of the Sons of Veterans to conduct, or assist in conducting, the burial service of any of the deceased comrades.

JOHN DOUGHERTY
Council of Administration, 1921-1922

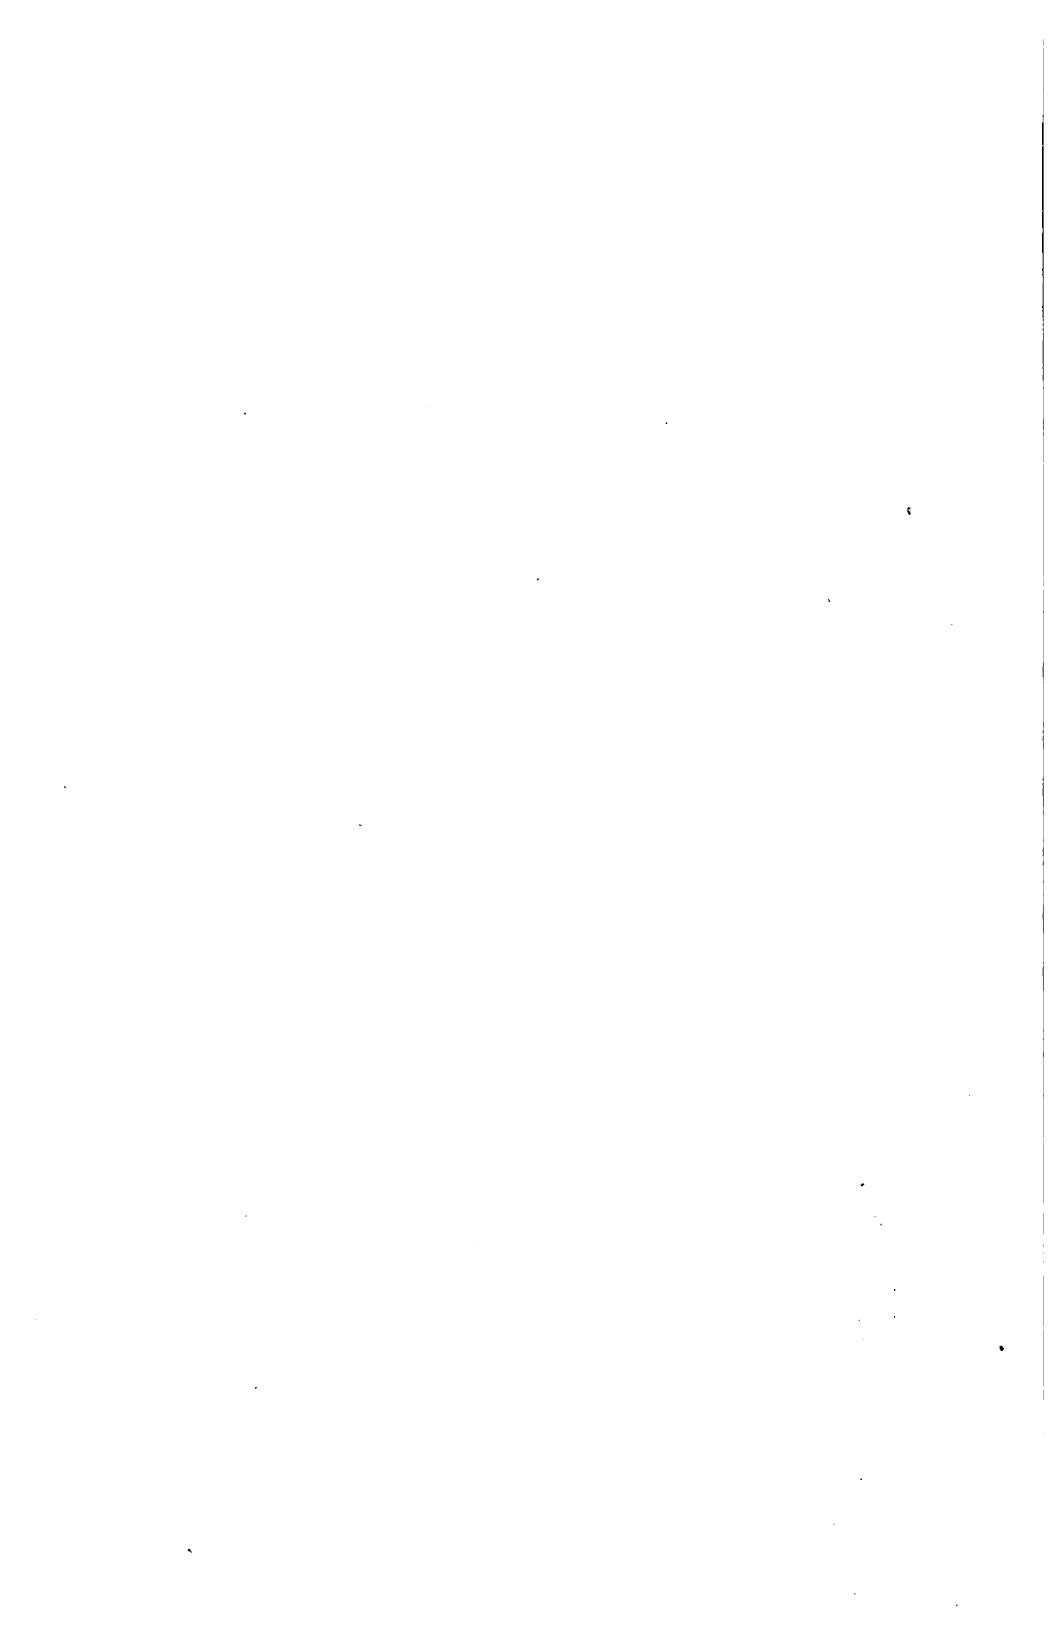

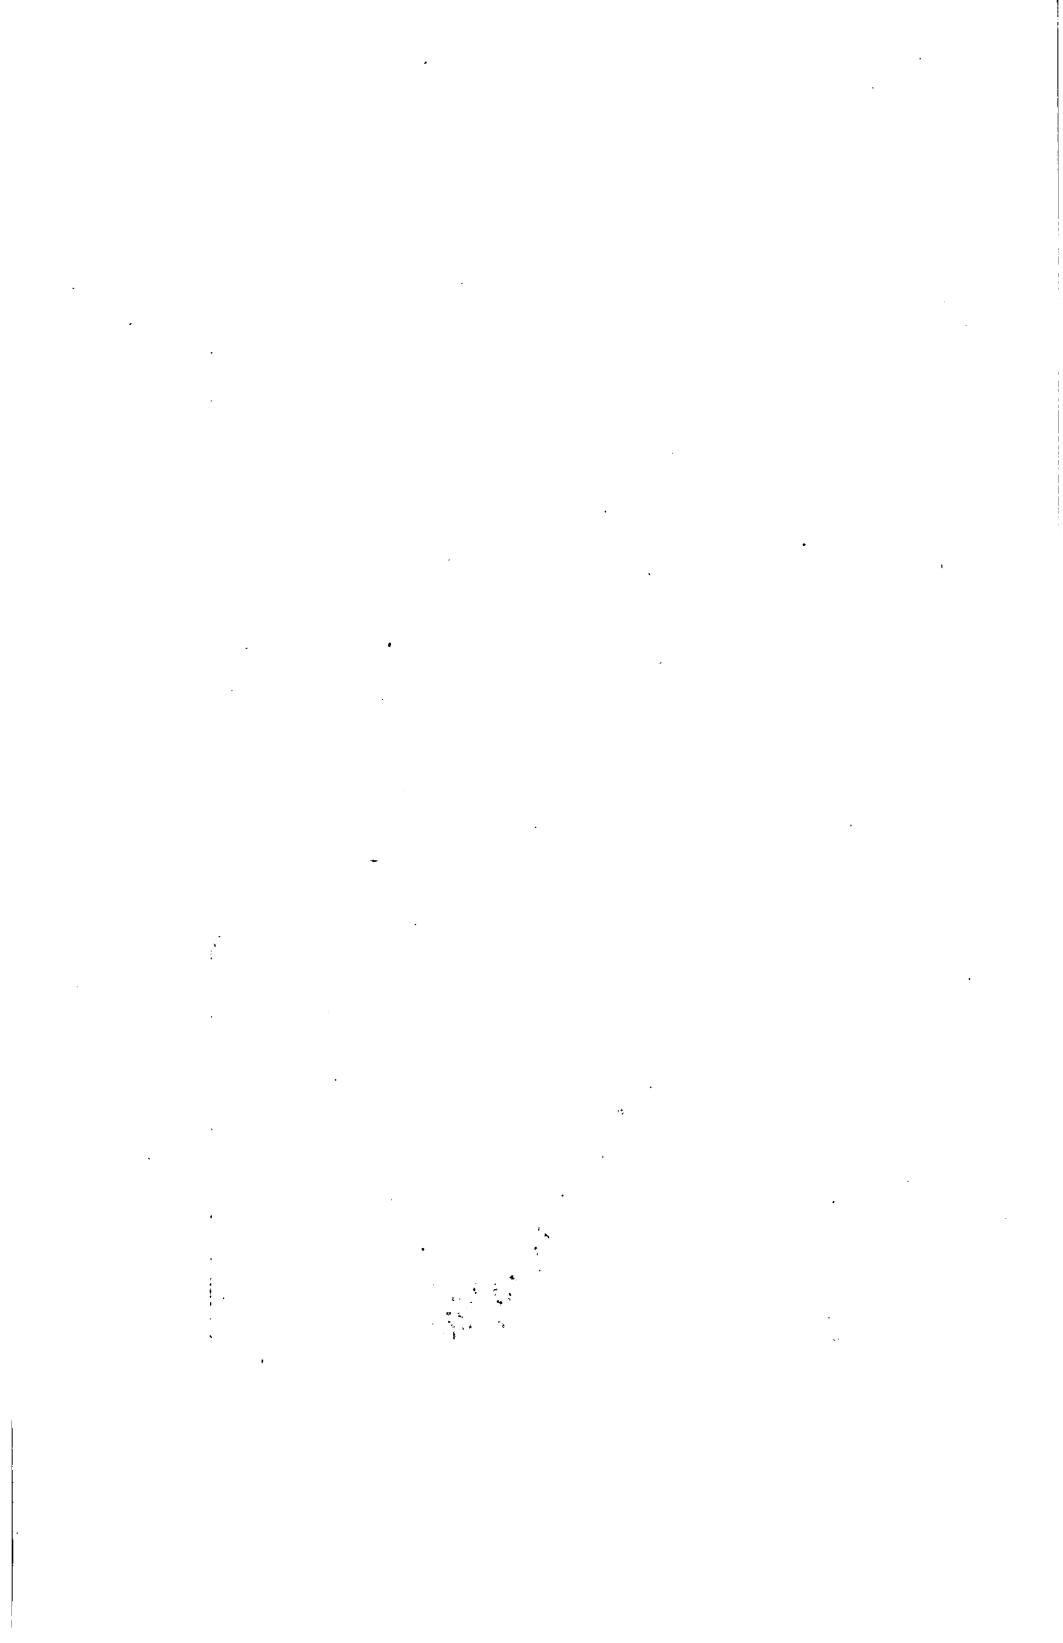

J. Y. CHESSROWN
Council of Administration, 1921-1922

H. T. STANWOOD
Secretary, Council of Administration, 1921-1922.

WILLIAM G. McEWAN
Council of Administration, 1921-1922

CAMPBELL STANTON
Patriotic Instructor, 1921-1922.

2. That the next State Encampment be asked to request the National Encampment to adopt the foregoing or some similar rule or regulation. The committee have approved of this suggestion, and will refer the paper to the National Encampment for such action as it deems necessary.

Agreed to.

No. 2.

The next Resolution comes from Comrade H. H. Bengough, Post No. 157, and is as follows:

"RESOLVED, That at all future meetings of the Department Encampment the custom of selecting the Senior Vice Department Commander from the entertaining city or place of meeting of the Department Encampment, be abolished."

The committee recommend this rule be adopted for future meetings.

COMRADE H. H. BENGOUGH, Post No. 157: Comrades, it is the feeling that the Encampment ought not to be restricted to the selection of the Senior Vice Department Commander from the city in which we meet, but that we can look throughout the department and select a comrade who is capable and able, physically and mentally, to take the Commander's place if any misfortune should happen to him.

COMRADE H. E. PAYNE, Post No. 139: I would like to inquire if this practice is not simply a custom that we have followed? Has there ever been any action taken by the Department which would commit the Department to select the Senior Vice Department Commander from the place where the Encampment was held?

COMRADE BENGOUGH: It is an unwritten law—simply a custom, and it has not always been followed.

COMRADE PAYNE: Then this resolution is no more than a recommendation?

COMRADE BENGOUGH: That is right.

No objection to the recommendation of the committee that this be approved.

Agreed to.

No. 3.

"Since the National Encampment permits Department and Posts to admit to their meetings persons other than members to act as Secretary or Adjutant.

"THEREFORE RESOLVED, That the National Encampment take such action as to permit Departments and Posts to admit to their meetings all members of their affiliated patriotic organizations."

The committee recommends the adoption of that, and that it be referred to the National Encampment for such action as it deems necessary. Agreed to.

No. 4.

No. 4 is a Preamble and Resolution adopted by Post No. 180, of Uniontown, this Department, and I will ask Past Department Commander Arensberg to read the action of his Post, and it will be followed by a reading of the action of this committee.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER, L. F. ARENSBERG: Comrades, before reading the action of the Post, I would like to read a clipping taken from a newspaper published in Pittsburgh, which will give you an idea of why the resolution was presented at the Post. It was headed "Robert E. Lee's Birthday", and then followed:

"Placed on list of the Legion observances, Indianapolis, January 21st, Robert E. Lee's Birthday Anniversary was today included in the American Legion's Calendar of Events recommended for observance by American Citizens. This action was taken at the meeting here of National and State Executives of the Legion at the suggestion of Southern members.

"The Confederate Leader's birth anniversary was January 19th, and any observance must wait a year. The calendar, the executives said, was expected to be permanent and was drafted for use in connection with Americanization Work. It includes many historic dates, those relating to the Civil War being Lincoln's Birthday, the Battle of Gettysburg, and The Surrender of Appomattox."

Now, Comrades, the preamble and resolution of our Post is as follows:

"At a meeting of Will F. Stewart Post, February 4, 1922, the following preamble and resolutions were offered by Comrade L. F. Arensberg, Past Department Commander:

"WHEREAS, the following article published in the Pittsburgh Post of January 22, 1922, was brought to the attention of the Post.

Indianapolis, Jan. 21, 1922.

"At a meeting of the National Officers of the American Legion held here today, at the instance of Southern members the Birthday of Robert E. Lee was placed permanently on the American Legion Calendar in the interest of Americanization, a day to be observed and commemorated."

"AND WHEREAS, we believe the questions of the War of '61 to '65 were settled at that time in the best interests of our country, and many of the men who wore the gray so believed and express themselves;

"AND WHEREAS, we deplore the bringing up of partisan questions that were settled long before the men of the American Legion were born, who in their efforts of Americanization have placed the name of a man at the head of their calendar list of Americans to be emulated and revered, whom if he had succeeded in disrupting the country there would have been no American Legion;

"AND WHEREAS, we deem it unwise, impolitic, un-American and unpatriotic at this time to revive sectionalism;

"AND WHEREAS, we believe in ONE COUNTRY, ONE LANGUAGE and ONE FLAG.

"THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we deplore and regret the reported action of the national officers of the American Legion in placing the birthday of Robert E. Lee on their calendar as a day to be observed and commemorated by all patriotic Americans, and we hope they will reconsider and rescind their action and not put a premium on Disloyalty to the Flag and our Country."

THE CHAIRMAN: Comrades, your committee have formulated the following resolution to cover this subject:

"Your Committee deeply deplore that any such disloyal action as reported should be considered and approved by any patriotic or loyal organization of American citizens. We therefore recommend that the Assistant Adjutant General of this Department be instructed to communicate with the proper officials of the American Legion in order to determine whether the reported action is true, and if so, earnestly appeal on behalf of the Grand Army of the Republic to rescind the same and thereby show to the world that his nation does not put a premium on treason."

Moved and seconded that the action of the committee be approved. Agreed to.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER C. H. WM. RUHE: Comrades, I am familiar with the report made, and the executive committee of the American Legion made this as a recommendation, and that recommendation is to go to the National Encampment of the American Legion for confirmation.

It is well enough for us to get all the information we can relative thereto, but the matter has not yet been fully confirmed. This information, when we secure it, will be of great benefit to us when we go to our own National Encampment.

I would like to add to this resolution, that such information as we may procure be taken by the Pennsylvania delegation to the next National Encampment for their action in the matter, if it should be concluded to make Robert E. Lee's birthday a national holiday.

THE CHAIRMAN: The matter will certainly be forwarded to the American Legion, and if we find the information is correct as reported, the matter will be brought to the next National Encampment without further action.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER-ELECT HAMBRIGHT: I don't altogether approve of this report of the committee in their recommendation that the preamble and resolution take the usual course. I think we ought to give our emphatic approval of it,

I therefore move that the recommendations of the committee be approved by a rising vote.

Motion seconded and agreed to.

No. 5.

RESOLVED, That the thanks of this Encampment are due and hereby tendered to the Mayor, City Councils and citizens of Altoona, to Posts 42 and 488 of the Grand Army of the Republic, to Sons of Veterans Camp No. 12, to the Circles of the Ladies of the G. A. R., to the Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, to the Chamber of Commerce, the public press, the street railway services, the theatres, and to the Boy Scouts for the magnificent and generous manner in which they have entertained and provided for the comfort of the visiting members of the Grand Army of the Republic and their friends while in this beautiful mountain city.

Moved and seconded that the report of the Committee on Resolutions as a whole be adopted. Agreed to.

COMRADE H. H. SPAYD, Post No. 17: Department Commander and Comrades: Many of you, perhaps all of you, remember that a short time ago Senator Wesley Jones of Wyoming introduced a bill in the United States Senate compelling all the railroads of the country to grant a rate of one cent a mile transportation to all military organizations of all wars going to their national annual encampments and also to their affiliated associations.

I have just been listening attentively to the report of the Committee on Resolutions supposing they might just give a line on that important subject. Now, I have written to two or three or four senators on that matter, and I am going to keep at it, calling their attention to the fact that some years ago, I understand, when our committee appeared before the railroads, they said, "We would be glad to do it, we would be pleased and willing to grant that to you, but the Inter-state Commerce Commission will not permit us to do it."

During the last war we were granted that rate, as they said it was a practical move, that the sight of these old soldiers would inspire patriotism wherever they went, that it would arouse patriotism among the people. Now, if that be true, and I think it is, I sincerely believe that every meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic and its affiliated organizations inspire patriotism in the young and rising generation, and that will be a fact so long as these meetings are held. The war is over but the fight is not yet done for Americanism and patriotism. Can we not pass a resolution asking our officers to at least thank Senator Wesley Jones, of Wyoming, for introducing that bill, and requesting him to pass it, telling him we are back of him and will support him?

I also wrote to a member of the lower house from the Pittsburgh District. I said to him, "Watch it, see whether that bill goes to the house, and if it comes through, support it," and I am sorry I didn't say, "Go ahead and introduce a bill of your own of like nature, so you can rush it through as your own." N. Clyde Kelly is the man to whom I refer, and he is always in the fight for all legislation in favor of the Grand Army of the Republic, and he will support it.

Can we not get this committee to formulate some kind of a resolution bringing that matter properly before us?

COMRADE H. H. BENGOUGH: Let me suggest, Comrades, that as Comrade Spayd understands this matter so thoroughly and has been so closely in touch with it, cannot we ask him to retire for a little while in quite, and, with anybody else he wants to confer with, formulate as strong a resolution as possible in the words of our language. Don't the rest of the comrades agree with me?

Agreed to.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER C. H. WM. RUHE: Comrade Spayd and I have talked this matter over, and the bill he refers to is one which is to correct what is a slight abuse of an action taken by an Encampment some years ago. If you will recall, the Pennsylvania delegation introduced a preamble and resolution at the National Encampment at various times in reference to this particular matter. I had considerable correspondence with the Interstate Commerce Commission, and finally got from them the admission that the only way to prevent any discrimination in excursion rates was to get an amendment to the Interstate Commerce bill. After I received that admission, I again appeared before the Committee on Resolutions in the National Encampment, and later appeared before them, and Commander-in-Chief-Elect Kitchen immediately got up and moved the adoption of the recommendation of the resolution, and Judge Burton, one of the best lawyers in the Encampment, seconded it, and it was put through. The committee was instructed to prepare this amendment and present it in congress amending the Interstate Commerce bill so there could be no discrimination whatever in any shape or form of any classification they desired to have excursion rates established under the established rule. The bill was being prepared. The railroads did not want the amendment; the Interstate Commerce Commission didn't want the amendment, and most of all, the administration did not want the amendment, and they got their heads together, and to circumvent that amendment, Secretary McAdoo issued an order (he was in control of the railroads at that time) for one cent a mile, and it applied only to these organizations.

Now Senator Wesley Jones has introduced a bill asking for a rate of one cent a mile to the defenders of the country, and all we need now is for the comrades to prepare a resolution, then we will endorse that action, and then ask the National Encampment to endorse that action. Don't put it off until the future; we need it now in order to avail ourselves of it for the next Encampment we are going to attend, and I know every comrade in this room will favor an amendment of that kind. We not only want it for ourselves but we want it for all our auxiliary organizations for every comrade in this room knows that our auxiliaries are really the bearers of the burdens, financial and otherwise, and we want them to get the benefit of every thing we can procure, and I know your comrades are all in favor of it.

OFFICER OF THE DAY: Department Commander, a committee of ladies from the Daughters of Veterans is at the outpost waiting to be admitted.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: The Officer of the Day will return to the outpost and conduct the committee from the Daughters of Veterans to this platform.

The committee appointed escorted the committee from the Daughters of Veterans to the platform, the encampment being called up and saluting.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: Ladies, we welcome you to our Encampment.

Comrades, allow me to introduce to you Mrs. Rose, Department Secretary of the Daughters of Veterans.

MRS. ROSE: Comrades, it is not my desire to take up much of your time, but simply to bring to you this morning the loving greetings of the Daughters of Veterans, and in bringing our greetings we wish also to bring to you this bouquet of flowers illustrating the bouquet of loving deeds and loving acts that we would like to strew along your pathway all the rest of your life.

MRS. DAVIS: Comrades, I also bring greetings from the Daughters of Veterans, and I am very proud to do so. The Grand Army of the Republic is an organization we honor and respect above all others, and we shall never forget what you have done for us in giving us this beautiful "land of the free and home of the brave."

MRS. MALONEY: Comrades I don't think there is anything left for me to say except that I am delighted to be here with you to-day and I wish you every blessing and all happiness.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: I shall call on Past Department Commander Arensberg to thank the ladies for their visit.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: Daughters of Veterans, it affords me great pleasure to be permitted to thank you this morning for your kindness to our Department and on behalf of my comrades I wish to say that we can never forget our daughters or cease to love them, and we thank you very much for your visit this morning.

The committee appointed escorted the committee from the platform, the comrades standing until the ladies had left the hall.

OFFICER OF THE DAY: Department Commander, a committee of ladies from the Ladies of the G. A. R. are at the outpost waiting to be admitted.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: The Officer of the Day will return to the outpost and conduct the committee from the Ladies of the G. A. R., to this platform.

The committee appointed escorted the committee from the Ladies of the G. A. R. to the platform, the encampment being called up and saluting.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: Comrades, I take pleasure in presenting to you the committee from the Ladies of the G. A. R.

The first lady whom I shall introduce to you is the daughter of a Past National President of the Ladies of the G. A. R., whom you all knew, Mrs. Shade and this is her daughter, today occupying the same position—National President. Comrades, I present to you Mrs. Michener, National President of the Ladies of the G. A. R., and a native of Pennsylvania :

MRS. MICHENER: Department commander and comrades: Your time is valuable, I know, and so I will not make a lengthy speech. But I bring to you this morning the greetings of the Ladies of the G. A. R. As the Department Commander has told you, I am the daughter of a Past National President, and I am the daughter of a comrade who gave three years to the service of his country, and who spent seventeen months in Andersonville prison, so I am very proud of my heritage.

Comrades, you will be very glad to know that our organization is increasing in membership, and growing every day. I need hardly assure you that we are willing at all times to give you every assistance in our power, no matter what you may ask of us, no matter what time you ask of us. We are under your command at all times.

I am also proud because they selected me, a Pennsylvania woman, to be the National President of our organization. I hope, Department Commander, your convention will be harmonious and that your administration has been a successful one, as I believe it has. Please accept this little token with my best wishes. (Applause.)

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: Mrs. Michener, I thank you.

Comrades it is now my pleasure to introduce to you Mrs. Sharkey, Past President of the Ladies of the G. A. R.

MRS. SHARKEY: Commander and comrades: I bring to you the hearty greetings of the Ladies of the G. A. R., and want to say that we are working for the comrades whom we love, those comrades brave and true who offered their services and their lives, if need be for this country and that glorious red, white and blue. I thank you. Applause.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: I call on Past Department Commander J. Andrew Wilt to reply to the ladies.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER J. ANDREW WILT: Ladies, on behalf of my comrades, permit me to thank you very kindly for your visit here this morning, and we hope to meet with you many times in the future.

The committee apointed escorted the committee from the platform, the comrades standing until the ladies had left the hall.

COMRADE H. H. SPAYD, Post No. 17: Department Commander and comrades: as requested, I have prepared the resolution relating to the one-cent a mile rate, and hope it will meet with your approval, It is as follows:

"WHEREAS, The Interstate Commerce Commission has repeatedly ruled that the railroads will not be allowed to grant discriminating rates to the Grand Army of the Republic and other organizations of like nature; and

WHEREAS, Senator Wesley Jones of Wyoming has introduced a bill into the United States Senate amending the law so that the railroads shall grant "a cent a mile" rate to all organizations of former defenders of the country and their allied organizations when attending their annual meetings.

RESOLVED, That the Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic unanimously tender to Senator Jones their thanks, and hope he may be able to have the bill "reported out" and adopted, and signed by the President without undue delay."

Moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. Agreed to.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: Comrades, is there any new business? If not, we will proceed with the installation of officers. But at this time I am reminded of a story:

There was a political meeting held not long ago in a town not far from Philadelphia, and its purpose was to secure votes for a prospective member of councils. In the audience there sat a little fellow who applauded all the speakers. He happened to have charge of the railroad crossing, and he was well known, and he seemed to be having a good time. Like all political meetings, the speech of the candidate most interested was put at the end of the program, and when at last the candidate arose to make his speech, he said: My fellow citizens, if I am elected to Council, the first thing I shall do will be to make it safe for your wives and children by having the crossing at Sixth Street removed". Then the little fellow jumped up, and said, "Good bye! There goes my job!" And here goes mine! (Laughter and applause.)

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: I shall appoint as Installing Officer this morning, Past Commander-in-Chief, William J. Patterson.

INSTALLING OFFICER: Comrades, we are about to install the officers of your choice for the ensuing term. I will now ask the Assistant Adjutant General to read the list of the officers elected.

Chief Musterin Officer, W. T. Kennedy, Post No. 180.

Patriotic Instructor, Campbell Stanton, Post No. 162.

Chief of Staff, H. C. Shienck, Post No. 405.

The officer of the day presented these appointees for installation, and the obligation of their respective offices was administered to them by the Installing Officer.

INSTALLLING OFFICER: Comrades, I have discharged my duties as Installing Officer, and I counsel you to assist these officers, elected and appointed, and co-operate with them to the best of your ability in the discharge of their important duties during the coming year.

Department Commander Hambright, I place on your breast this badge that indicates your official position in the Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic. I place in your hands this gavel, the emblem of your authority, and feel assured you will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties incumbent upon you during the coming year. I therefore congratulate you and bid you welcome, and wish you much success in the year to come.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER HAMBRIGHT: Comrade Patterson, I sincerely thank you for the able manner in which you have installed the officers.

Comrades, I have selected my staff so that they might be geographically distributed throughout the various sections of the state, in order that my administration may be conducted in such a manner that each section of the state will be represented at all times.

And now, I have one request, should my presence at any of your Posts or any of your gatherings be conducive to promote the interests of the Grand Army of the Republic, I will be at your service; but I do ask that before any arrangements are finally made, you communicate with the Assistant Adjutant General in regard to the same.

Now, comrades, I thank you for the renewal of your confidence, and I trust and hope that my administration may help to promote the interests of the Grand Army of the Republic and each individual member, but bear in mind, Comrades, the fact that we must try if possible, by personal effort, to increase our ranks by taking in those who have been suspended or dropped. I believe in that way we may build up our ranks to help fill up the depleted lines caused by the Grim Messenger.

Comrades, I thank you, and trust you may be present at the next Encampment, I shall be glad to greet you at any and all times. Should I not recognize you, I presume you will recognize me and make yourself known to me, and you will have the hand of fellowship extended to you.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDER J. D. HICKS: My comrades, as chairman of the general committee appointed by our citizens for the reception and entertainment of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Sons of Veterans, and the auxiliary ladies organizations, I want to say to you that our hearts have swelled with pride at seeing so many of our comrades with whom we touched elbows once more in our City of Altoona, and if we have failed to do our full duty to you, and to give you that reception that we owe you, and that the country owes you, I hope you will pardon us. Let us as many as possible be as Greensburg next year, and do not forget Des Moines this year. Let us show the country at large that the comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, are still loyal to the core, and are now and forever for "One country and One Flag!"

I thank you.

COMRADE F. H. HOY, Post No. 58: Department Commander, I move that the thanks of this Department be tendered to our past officers for the very efficient manner in which they filled their various positions during the last year.

Motion seconded and agreed to.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: Comrades, let us sing two verses of "America", after which the Department Chaplain will invoke the Divine Blessing.

DEPARTMENT CHAPLAIN FORGEUS: Father most merciful and gracious, we beseech Thee to grant unto us the light of Thy countenance, the guidance of Thy spirit, that Thou wouldst lead us in the ways of truth and righteousness, and bring us at last unto that eternal inheritance to which we have been called through the grace and mercy of our Lord, Jesus Christ, Amen.

DEPARTMENT COMMANDER: I now declare the Fifty-sixth Annual Encampment of the Department of Pennsylvania, Grand Army of the Republic, closed.
